Major Battle Looms In Peiping-Tientsin Area

Loyalist Position Critical

Chinese Reds Closing In

NANKING—(UP)—A major battle between nationalist troops under "ever victorious" nationalist Gen. Fu Tso-Yi and communist soldiers under Gen. Lin Piao shaped up today along a 50-mile line between Peiping and Tientsin.

The government's position in Hopeh province in North China became more critical when the Nationalists abandoned Paoting, about 90 miles southwest of Peiping.

Six columns of communist troops were said to be converging along the Peiping-Tientsin front. Lin's soldiers reportedly reached the east bank of the historic Grand Canal about 45 miles southeast of Peiping.

Fu was said to have deployed a large force in Mataochen and Sossuwu west of the Grand Canal to check the advancing communists, whose primary objective appeared to be disrupting Peiping's rail communications with Tientsin and the coast and to isolate the old Chinese capital.

Meanwhile, Central News agency reported two government columns heading north from Pengpu to reopen fall contact with Suchow smashed to within 16 miles of communist-held Suhsien, a key station between Pengpu and Suchow.

East of Suchow, the so-called Gateway to Nanking, government rescue columns also were reported to have made a two-mile advance in the last 24 hours. The gains narrowed the gap between them and Gen. Huang Po-Tao's encircled forces to 10 miles.

MARSHALL REPORTS

In America, Secretary of State George C. Marshall's personal report to President Truman was expected today to speed important decisions on aid to China.

Marshall touched on China and other foreign policy problems during his hour-long meeting yesterday with the President, and at a luncheon conference with the Chief Executive and the cabinet. The secretary may return to the White House today to continue the general discussion, Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said.

Reliable informants predicted that future meetings would deal specifically with possible United States action on behalf of the hard-pressed Chinese nationalist government.

However, despite Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's plea for U.S. help, it was regarded unlikely that any dramatic or administration formula to meet the Chinese communist advance would be forthcoming immediately. Factors listed by officials familiar with the situation included:

1. The necessity for a top-level review of American foreign policy in Asia. This review would take into consideration the views of "friendly" governments having strategic interests in that continent.

2. Re-evaluation of the communist advances through Manchuria into north China to determine whether nationalist China could be saved with large-scale American economic and military aid.

3. Careful balancing of American interests in Europe and China to determine whether the United States could, in effect, extend the Truman doctrine to China without spreading American help too far to be effective.

This Is a Lot Of Applesauce

A lot of applesauce—144 cases, in fact—were distributed today to city and county schools and institutions.

The applesauce was made available by Surplus Commodities administration. A county truck was sent to Wooster to bring it to Mansfield.

County Supt. of Schools Boyd Robinson said that Mansfield schools received 43 cases, the County Home, six, the tuberculosis sanatorium, three, and the Children's Home, five.

Distribution in the county schools includes: Bellville, nine cases; Butler, eight; Lexington, 11 cases; Lucas, Shelby, and Shiloh, each seven; Madison, 17; Ontario, 15; Union, six.

PUBLICITY STUNT?—Search crews who spent hours fighting bad weather in the search for missing screen star Bobby Breen called his disappearance a hoax after finding he had spent the night at a Wisconsin hotel. (International)

Officials Denounce 'Lost' Tale

See Possible Charges Filed

GLIDDEN, Wis. —(UP)— Officials denounced Bobby Breen's "disappearance" into the north woods as a publicity hoax today and began an investigation on whether criminal charges could be lodged against the former child singer and his press agent.

Breen denied that he or his employes had engineered a scheme to gain free advertising. He said it was "just an unfortunate series of circumstances."

But officers who directed the search for Breen in sub-freezing weather were outspoken in their opinion that they were taken for a ride.

"State patrolmen, game wardens and deputies who spent all those hours in the woods hunting for him while he was in a warm lodge are pretty sore," said Undersheriff Clyde Williamson of Sawyer county.

"More than 50 men worked out of our office alone. Some of them are of a mind to run his party out of these woods."

Breen was "found" last night in a resort hotel where he and his pilot, Kenneth Thompson, had been staying for more than 24 hours while ground and air rescue parties searched the woods for them. Breen was registered at a lodge under an assumed name. They had been reported missing on a flight from Milwaukee to Hayward, Wis.

"God forbid that I should do anything like this for publicity," Breen said today. "It would ruin my career and scare the daylights out of my parents."

He claimed he and Thompson were forced down near here by bad weather. He said he tried unsuccessfully to reach Ernie Roth, his advance agent, who reported him missing when the plane failed to arrive at Hayward, Wis.

But the volunteers, pilots and officials who searched him shrugged off his explanation and expressed "disgust at the waste of time and effort and the risk of our lives."

He said they were driven 20 miles off their course and "nearly tipped over" when they landed here. He said they were out of gas and their engine was faltering.

He said a farmer drove them to a hotel here where he registered under a false name, Bob Benedict, to "avoid publicity."

Sheriff's officers took a statement from Breen and said they would study whether charges could be preferred against him.

Ohioan Denies 'Red' Charge

DELAWARE—(UP)—An official of the Methodist Board of Education today denied charges by the House Un-American Activities committee yesterday that the Methodist Federation for Social Action is communistic.

Rev. Lester Norris, executive secretary of the board, said he didn't think the federation could be called communistic.

He said he was a member of the organization and "I know the Rev. James Myers, head of the federation. He has spoken at Ohio Wesleyan university many times and three years ago he spoke at the annual conference in Columbus. He's no communist."

East Port Strike Felt In City

Hits Plant Operations Here

Mansfield's industrial production was threatened today as export shipments from four of the city's major industrial plants continue to be held up by the east coast longshoremen's strike.

"The longshoremen's strike has cut off all export shipments from Mansfield Tire and Rubber company," a company official said. "Continuance of the strike beyond Dec. 1 may necessitate some curtailment in manufacturing operations."

The strike, now in its 13th day, is a counterpart of the 83-day-old strike of longshoremen in San Francisco. New York shippers are scheduled to meet with officials of the International Longshoremen's association, AFL, today to review a compromise peace proposal.

Other plants hit by the coastal tie-up are Ohio Brass company, Barnes Manufacturing company anad Tappan Stove company. Tappan Stove officials, however, said they were affected "very lightly" because of small export trade.

Ohio Brass officials said they were exporting only to Mexico at the time and that they are "stockpiling all export orders here and at the Barberton plant.

STILL PRODUCING

"We're continuing to make the materials required for the orders," an O-B spokesman said, "but we're cut off from all our foreign markets."

D. A. McCullough, vice president of Barnes Manufacturing company, said three carloads of manufactured pumps, bound for Portugal and Venezuela are tied up on the East coast now. Twenty per cent of Barnes's business is export trade.

McCullough, however, said no lay-offs at the plant were foreseen since domestic demand "is great enough to keep the plant running."

Reporting no trouble as a result of the strike were officials of Westinghouse, Farm Tools, Inc., and Empire Steel. Spokesmen added that they anticipated no effects in the near future.

Meanwhile, freight embargoes continued on commercial shipments to the coast where the ports at Portland, Me.; Boston, Mass.; New York City, Port Newark, N. J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Wilmington, Del.; Baltimore, Md., and Hampton Roads, Va., are literally paralyzed by the walk-out.

Ship Strike Deadlocked

NEW YORK — (UP) — Federal mediators remained optimistic about an early settlement of the east coast longshoremen's walkout today as shipowners met to consider possible new concessions to the strikers.

"We are looking for a speedy solution," said William N. Margolis, assistant director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation service. "I see nothing that will break down negotiations now."

Representatives of the 65,000 members of the International Longshoremen's association (AFL) who have been on strike for 14 days turned down as "nothing new" a weekend compromise offer by the shippers.

That plan had called for the men to return to work pending negotiations on a welfare plan, demanded by the union along with a 25-cents hourly wage increase.

"We have no right to submit this to our membership," said Joseph P. Ryan, president of the ILA, "because it is no different than the proposition rejected by the members."

John V. Lyon, chairman of the New York Shipping association, said the employers negotiating committee had offered as great concessions as the authority designated to it would allow. He called a meeting of shipowners to ask for an extension of power.

The ILA negotiation committee will meet at 3 p. m. to consider any new offers by the owners, Ryan announced.

Induction Scheduled Here

First Two Draftees To Leave Friday

The first two Mansfielders to be called into military service under the nation's new peacetime draft will be inducted at the Mansfield army recruiting office Friday at 8 a. m.

John Christopher Frederick, 108 Ford street, and Hollis William Ward, 325 North Main street, are the men selected, the draft board announced today.

The original November quota for the local draft board was four men, but it was modified when the number of rejections was found to be far higher than was originally expected.

The draft law requires that men in the higher age groups be inducted first. Consequently a large proportion of the registrants in the higher age groups are ineligible for the draft because they are veterans, married, or physically or otherwise unfit.

The draft board has classified 436 men. Their classifications are likely to be changed, however, after they have taken pre-induction physical examinations, board spokesmen said.

Questionnaires for men born in 1929 are being sent out, at the rate of 10 a day. All the questionnaires for older men who are single and not veterans have been mailed. Most of the eligible registrants have not been reached, as they fall in the younger age groups.

In November 60 men took pre-induction physical examinations in anticipation of an increased quota for December.

VERDICT SCHEDULED

TOKYO — (UP) — Japanese wartime Premier Hideki Tojo and his 24 co-defendants will get Gen. Douglas MacArthur's verdict on their appeals from war crimes sentences tomorrow morning.

Man Held In Assault

Elmer Treadwell, 28, of 41 Harmon avenue, was charged in municipal court today with assaulting Patrolman Glenn Adams with a dangerous weapon and was ordered held for hearing tomorrow under $1,000 bond. No plea was entered.

Treadwell is accused of striking Adams with the officer's nightstick when the latter tried to break up a fight between Treadwell and an unidentified woman Saturday. Police said Treadwell hit Adams with his fist, grabbed his nightstick and hit him on the head.

Adams was treated at General hospital and released.

The defendant has a long police record, dating back to May, 1938. He has been found guilty of malicious destruction of property, disorderly conduct, resisting an officer, auto theft twice, assault and battery, intoxication and leaving the scene of an accident.

If Treadwell is convicted of the present charge he faces a sentence of three to 30 years in the penitentiary. He already has served time at the Boys' Industrial school, the Ohio State reformatory and the Ohio penitentiary.

Suspension Ires Mayor

Dignity Insulted, Canaday Declares

POMEROY — (AP) — Delmar A. (Kid) Canaday, the ex-prizefighter who got to be mayor of Pomeroy, says a message announcing his suspension last night insults his dignity.

The message, he said, came from Gov. Thomas J. Herbert and informed him he was being suspended as mayor for 30 days on eight charges of misconduct in office. The charges have to do with his handling of fines collected and with his try at buying a $265 water cooler for the state bureau of unemployment compensation office here, Canaday said.

A special messenger brought the message, he said, just as he and his wife were about to leave home for a concert at Gallipolis.

"The messenger seemed to be scared to death," the mayor said, "and insisted he could not say for whom he worked. He finally admitted his name was P. S. Kinsey."

The message, Mayor Canaday added, notified him that he would be given a hearing Dec. 4 in Columbus on the charges.

They were filed several weeks ago by four members of the six-member city council of Pomeroy. The councilmen were Republicans and Canaday, a Democrat, declared they brought the action to embarrass him in his unsuccessful campaign for Congress in the tenth district against Rep. Thomas A. Jenkins of Ironton.

Canaday asserted today that while he lost the election, he carried Pomeroy and believed he had the confidence of a majority of its citizens.

"Why, this insults my dignity," he exclaimed.

Inflation Level-Off Hinted

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Has inflation at last reached its peak—or perhaps even passed it?

There are new signs today that this could be so. But somewhat similar signs appeared in early 1947 and 1948 only to be bowled over by another upsurge in the boom.

Among the latest indications emerging from government reports in the last few days are these:

A two-month decline in the consumer (cost-of-living) price index until, in October, it was only moderately above last January's level.

Also, a dip since August in the general index of wholesale prices—which are more of a guide on future costs at retail—until in October the index dropped slightly below the level of last January

Not all prices have gone down. Those for metals, which play a major role in determining the price course of many goods, have been rising even more sharply than in 1947.

Prices, however, are only one factor on the scoreboard showing how the inflation contest between supply and demand has been getting along.

SUPPLY BETTER

"Supply of many goods," says the federal reserve board in its latest bulletin, "is now in better balance with demand at current prices than at any time since before the war."

Business has slowed down its buying. Department store sales have dropped below last year in dollar volume for two consecutive weeks, and retail sales in general haven't been showing their old month-by-month climb.

Starts on construction of new home have been declining since April—suggesting, as the federal reserve board put it, "resistance on the part of buyers to current high prices."

Price-resistance is a factor in the retail and department store sales picture too, officials say, although they add that unseasonable weather might have as much or more to do with it.

Washington economists are viewing all this with extreme caution, recalling that there were wrong forecasts when some similar developments occurred in the spring of 1947 and in the opening months of 1948.

Central Park Acquires That Yuletide Look

Mansfield's Central park is beginning to acquire that Christmas look.

Workmen are stringing ropes of laurel leaves, decorated with stars, across the park, and a 30-foot Christmas tree has gone up at the northwest corner of the mid-city beauty spot.

The Retail Merchants association, which sponsors the holiday decorations, hopes to have the Christmas lights turned on in the park Thanksgiving night or Friday.

When the decorations are completed the fountain in the center of the park will be covered to look like a large Christmas bell.

The big Christmas tree will be decorated with plastic ornaments colored balls, and all the traditional yuletide symbols.

The annual decorations are made possible by contributions from Mansfield business establishments which are members of the sponsoring association.

Hunter Finds Man's Skull

NEW LEXINGTON—(UP)—Coroner H. F. Minshull sought today to identify the skull found in a field south of here. A Zanesville man disappeared from that area 11 months ago.

Steve Ciber found the skull late yesterday while looking for his dog between the villages of Congo and Drakes. Residents identified clothing, a watch, and glasses found at the spot as belonging to Henry Hillis, 65, of Zanesville. He has been missing since Jan. 4.

No trace of the rest of the skeleton was found, Dr. Minshull said. There were no marks on the skull, he added.

20 Spies Arrested In Drive

Claim Most Were German

FRANKFURT — (UP) — The United States tightened security along the German-Czechoslovakian border today following the roundup of more than 20 Czechoslovakian spies in the American and British zones of Germany.

U. S. Army headquarters at Heidelberg announced that its counter-intelligence agents had broken the Czechoslovakian ring.

"They will be charged with acts prejudicial to the United States occupation and will be turned over to United States military government authorities," an Army spokesman said.

He added that the spies now were being held under Army supervision at an undisclosed place. A competent source denied they had been smuggled into Germany as anti-communist refugees.

Meantime, constabulary troops manning the outposts on the border between the American zone and the Soviet statellite country were reported to be extremely security conscious.

Americans traveling in the region reported identity documents were being closely examined and that travel in certain directions had been restricted to those obtaining special clearance from constabulary officers.

Headquarters said the entire gang was composed of "mixed nationalities." An authoritative source said they were mostly Germans. They were grabbed in a series of coordinated arrests by counter-intelligence agents. Most of them were reported to have been picked up in Munich, headquarters for the ring, but some were taken in the British zone.

It was the second official spy roundup since the occupation of Germany began.

The Army spokesman estimated it would be "two or three weeks" before further details would be revealed on the latest incident.

NEW RED MOVE

Meanwhile the Russians have prepared a secret plan to halt service on Berlin's elevated railway in the western sectors, the British-licensed news agency DPD said today.

No date has yet been set, the agency said.

However, Taegliche Rundschau, official German language newspaper of the Soviet military administration, said last week that traffic of all kinds would be halted between the eastern and western sectors of Berlin after the Dec. 5 municipal elections in the city.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay reported today that the communist trade union in the Soviet occupation zone had tried in vain to exploit labor unrest in western Germany.

Parents Get Stutter Rap

NORMAN, Okla. (U.P.)—If your children stutter, you yourself may be to blame.

So says Dr. Carl Ritzman, director of speech correction at the University of Oklahoma, Norman.

A large number of stuttering cases, Dr. Ritzman contends, can be blamed on upsetting of the children's emotions by the custom of repressing certain natural instincts.

"Fathers usually cause stuttering by being too polite or too unapproachable to their children," Ritzman says. "The main fault of the mother is making herself appear to be a martyr by working too hard and making too much of a career."

Bulletin

WASHINGTON—(UP)—President Truman will present a "definite" anti-inflation program to the 81st Congress in January, presidential adviser Dr. Edwin G. Nourse said today. Nourse said the anti-inflation program will be outlined generally in President Truman's "State of the Union" message in January.

Industries, Stores Mark Thanksgiving

Thousands In City To Get Holiday

Most Mansfield business and industrial firms will halt operations Thursday to give thousands of workers a chance to spend Thanksgiving at home with their families.

All public offices, banks, and most stores in the city will be closed all day. A few restaurants will be open to serve diners who think it's cheaper to dine out than buy turkey.

The Empire Steel plant, which because of the heated furnaces used in the making of steel and the current heavy demand for that product, will continue working throughout the day in regular shifts. Even the office force at the plant is expected to work at least a part of the day, officials of the company said.

Only the Mansfield Tire and Rubber company will extend its holiday through Friday. Office employes, however, will return to work Friday morning after a one-day holiday.

The Mansfield post office will be closed all day Thanksgiving. There will be no mail deliveries on city, rural, or mounted routes. Outgoing mail will be dispatched as usual.

The regular holiday schedule of collections will be followed Thursday. The first business collection will begin at 8 a. m., a combined business and residential collection at noon, and the final business collection at 4 p. m.

Mansfield, Madison township and Richland county schools will close at the regular time Wednesday afternoon and pupils will not resume their studies until the following Monday morning.

Mansfield Near Bottom Of Big Ten

Massillon's mighty Tigers reign today as the 1948 scholastic football champions of Ohio.

So say the Buckeye sport scribes voting in the weekly gridiron polls of the Associated Press and International News Service. Once-beaten Massillon assumed the throne Saturday afternoon when it defeated Canton McKinley, leader throughout the season, 21 to 12.

The Tigers of Coach Chuck Mather succeeded Barberton as state champs. Mather came to Massillon only this season from Hamilton public The Hamilton squad which Mather directed through spring practice wound up third in the AP listing and fourth in the INS.

MATHER TOP COACH

All of which should make the likeable Ohio Northern graduate a cinch nominee for "coach of the year" honors.

Massillon's only loss was a 14-to-0 beating at the hands of Alliance. But all the experts agreed that the Tigers were looking beyond Alliance at Mansfield and were not ready. The Tigers victory list follows: Cleveland Cathedral Latin, 44-13, Canton Lincoln, 25-0; Youngstown South, 28-7, Steubenville, 34-21; Mansfield, 33-7; Warren, 39-14; Toledo Waite, 19-7, and Barberton, 28-0.

Second honors in both polls went to McKinley with Hamilton and Martins Ferry splitting the third place spots. The Ferrians defeated Mansfield last week, 6 to 0, to finish the season with nine wins and one tie They were rated sixth in the AP selections

MANSFIELD CONSTANT

Oddly enough Mansfield remained pretty constant in the poll, although losing its third game of the season. The Tygers moved from tenth to ninth in the AP and slipped from tenth to 12th in the INS

Middletown, beaten for the first time last week by Hamilton, had a fourth and sixth while Newark took fifth in both rankings. Alliance and Lakewood had seventh and eighth. Gallipolis, New Philadelphia, Akron St. Vincent and Kenton were rated above Mansfield in the INS poll

Among area teams which got some mention were: Bucyrus, Mt. Vernon ,and Upper Sandusky.

Records of the top teams follow Massillon (9-1), Canton (9-1), Martins Ferry (9-0-1), Hamilton (9-1), Middletown (9-1-1), Newark (9-1), Alliance (9-1), Lakewood (8-1), Gallipolis (9-0), Mansfield (7-3), Akron St. Vincent (8-0) and New Philadelphia (9-1).

Football Season Wrapped And Stored By Boosters

By FRED THARP, News-Journal Sports Editor

The king is dead. Long live the king.

That is substance of what happened at last night's Tyger booster club session at the Senior high school auditorium. The largest crowd of the season was on hand for the big "Pigskin Revue" presented by the Marching Tygers of J. Merton Holcombe and the booster outfit

The band show and a 1948 farewell speech by Coach Augie Morningstar ushered out the grid season and Vernon Hoffman, Tyger basketball coach, made a surprise appearance on the speakers' rostrum to tell a little something about the basketball season which opens next Friday.

BAIRD IS MC

With J Gilbert Baird, chairman of the half-time show committee, acting as emcee, the band presented a medley of the theme songs from each of the seven home football games. Spotlight number was the Indian presentation which opened the season. Eight of the majorettes "flowed" through a tribal dance to the strains of "Sun Dance" and Sally Lou Seger presented an Indian acrobatic number under the black lights.

Baird paid tribute to all persons who helped with the half-time shows. V. H Oberlander, Senior high vocational supervisor, constructed the various stage settings which were used and Ethyl Battin was the dance instructor.

Morningstar also got on the tribute bandwagon. He gave a review of each of the 13 senior members of the Senior high squad and was "glad to see the town catching fire. When you get a town patting you on the back it means an awful lot. I wish to thank the Mansfield citizens and booster club for their cooperation."

About the Martins Ferry game, Morningstar said, "I don't think they had a better ball team."

"The basketball players are sure enthusiastic. Some of the players even predict they'll be in the state finals," with those words the balding Hoffman opened his remarks.

He went on to tell that the Tygers lost all except two regulars—Norb Shibinski and Paul Ferguson. That the teams would play a rugged 20-game schedule and that he would be assisted by Mike Byelene and Fred Staub.

Including the football boys, there are some 40 candidates for the 1948-49 basketball squad. That figure will be cut to 26 before the first game.

Strangler Lewis Named Grunt Czar

NEW YORK — (INS) — Ed Strangler Lewis, former heavyweight wrestling champion has become the czar of the grunt-and-groaners Lewis has been named chairman of the Wrestling Promoters' Association of America and allied countries at a salary of $25,000 a year

He will have the power to rule on all controversies.

Jack Wilson Named 1949 Buck Captain

COLUMBUS —(INS)— Captain of the 1949 Ohio State football squad will be 23-year-old Jack Wilson of Xenia, a six-foot-four Marine Corps veteran of the Luzon and Mindanao campaigns who never intended to play college football.

The Xenia high school basketball star was tagged last night by his 1948 teammates, at the annual football appreciation dinner. And his first reaction was that of a little boy whose older brother has just handed him a suit too big for him.

"I don't fit it yet, but I hope to grow into it"

INTRODUCED BY DAVE

Wilson, who played only one year of high school football, was introduced after a spot of confusion at the "mike" by retiring Captain Dave Templeton, who told his old buddies:

"Believe me fellows, you're the grandest bunch of guys I've ever been associated with." And then he added:

"This is Jack Wilson, folks, your 1949 captain—and believe me, it couldn't happen to a better guy."

Wilson, who put on a football uniform in 1946, more or less to mark time until basketball season, said he was deeply appreciative of the honor, and when he was greeted by a roaring cheer, he added:

"It's a big thing to know how the fellows feel"

Dick O'Hanlon, a tackle like Hilson, was named "work horse" of the Bucks. Dick played 411 out of a possible 540 minutes during the past season to top the list in playing time.

TEMPLETON SECOND

"Old Cap" Templeton was second with 327 minutes and Sonny Gandee, end, was third with 307 minutes Gandee also got the annual Ohio State Journal quarterback club award as the sophomore who showed the most improvement during the year.

The 10 graduating seniors received blankets and Athletic Director Richard C. Larkins handed out letters to 34 varsity men, 28 to the junior varsity, and 21 150-pounders.

Rated Threat

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Bowling Green State university, with only three men entered, was rated today as a threat to give the University of Cincinnati a battle for team title honors in the Cincinnati Elks' 38th annual cross country run Thanksgiving day.

Dancer's 664 Paces City's Bowling Army

Bowling scores on the Richland Recreation and Colony alleys were off last night with one very notable exception—Don Dancer in the Commercial "C" league.

Don was the only kegler in the city to go over the 600 mark and he skyrocketed completely out of sight of all competition. Rolling with the Pioneer Printing team at Colony, Dancer fired a 234-182-248—664.

He was 66 pins above his nearest competitor, Gene Cusic, who just missed the honor roll with a 212-186-200—598. Charles Bauer had 589, while Jake Streitmater posted a pair of 201 games and a 580 total.

Bob Hilborn had a 214 game and a 574 total, while the dubious honor of "most disappointed of the night" goes to Red Maneese. Red began like a house afire with 207 and 215 but fell to a weak 114 in his third game for a 536 total.

Urschel Insurance, led by Streitmater, pounded out two victories over Local 17 to maintain its firm three-game grip on the league lead.

★

A 191-194-209—594 by Bob Lynch was good enough to lead Club league bowlers. Lloyd Pugh had the best single game, 219, but followed it with games of 169 and 162 for a 550 total.

Colony Manager Art Hilborn took runnerup honors with a 215-178-191—584, while G. Garrison came in with a 564.

League standings were scrambled completely by the night's activities as four teams are now deadlocked for the top The Schoolmasters, and University teams won three games, while Baku Grotto took two, and the Optimists one to form the tie. The Optimists had held a one game lead over Grotto.

★

Out at the Richland C league, Brokaw was the big gun with a 201-165-215—581 count. J. Rhoads posted 537 while Gene Rudolph turned in 534, and K. Beam, 513

Brokaw's 581 was a new season high for the league.

★

Don Bachman paced Gorman-Rupp bowlers with a 212-198-174—584. R. Schisler, Sr. came in with 525 while George Columbus had 514.

★

Mary Kleshynski's 142-150-157—449 led the Mansfield Tire Women, while Mary Alice Daniels was second with a 441. Other leading scores in the league included Naomi Crone's 396 and Chris Au's 389.

Legion Honors Dewey Durant With Banquet

Walter "Dewey" Durant, genial manager of Mansfield's state runnersup American Legion Junior baseball team, was the surprise honored guest at the team banquet held last night at the Sky club.

Dewey was presented with a gold watch by Leo McVey Post 16 in appreciation of his ten years service to the team. The watch presented by Post commander Joe Denning was inscribed "To Dewey Durant from McVey Post 16 in appreciation for services to junior baseball."

Team members of both the junior baseball team and the Legion sponsored city softball league team were guests at the banquet. Baseball team members received medals as tokens of their winning the district tournament.

Dewey reviewed the 1948 season and called on various team members who expressed their thanks to the Legion for sponsoring of the junior program.

Former Slugger Is Near Death

PALTIMORE —(INS)— Lewis R. "Hack" Wilson, one-time home-run king of the National league, was reported near death today in Baltimore city hospital.

The famed slugger is suffering from internal hemorrhages and a pulmonary condition similar to pneumonia. Doctors say his condition is critical.

Tribe Sells Bob Muncrief To Pittsburgh

CLEVELAND —(AP)— The first player deal by the Cleveland Indians since they became world champions has sent Bob Muncrief, a 200-pound righthand pitcher, to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

What the Pirates paid for Muncrief, who posted a 5-4 record last season, was not mentioned in last night's announcement of the deal, but it was believed to be in excess of the $10,000 waiver price.

President Bill Veeck gave the St. Louis Browns three players and more than $25,000 for Muncrief and Outfielder-first Baseman Walter Judnich last winter.

End With Victory

BUCYRUS — Bucyrus' Green Hornets ended their 1948 season with a 33-to-0 win over the Sandusky Maroons at Sandusky Sunday It was the Hornets' ninth win in 11 starts

Williams, Dawson Bout Is Cancelled

PHILADELPHIA —(INS)— A fractured right hand today forced lightweight champion Ike William to cancel his Christmas fund bout with Freddy Dawson, of Chicago, at Cleveland.

The ten-round non-title meeting was to have headed a benefit program on Dec. 7. Williams suffered the injury while knocking out Billy Nixon in Philadelphia last Thursday night.

Templeton On All-Big 9 Squad

Mansfield's Dave Templeton, retiring Ohio State football captain, has been named to a guard post on the second All-Big Nine team selected by conference coaches for Associated and United Press

Templeton, former Senior high school star, was one of only two Ohio State players to make the second team The other was Fullback Joe Whisler. None made the first team, but Dick O'Hanlon, Ray DiPierro, Pandel Savic and Jerry Krall were given honorable mention.

As could be expected, Michigan dominated the first team selections with four men

Representing Michigan which repeated for the conference title and helped pile up a 23-game winning streak are Quarterback Pete Elliott, End Dick Rifenburg, Tackle Al Wistert and Guard Dominic Tomasi

Guard Leo Nomellini the only holdover from the 1947 honor lineup, and End Bud Grant were picked from Minnesota Bill Kay, 220-pound tackle from Iowa, rounds out the line, which averages 210 pounds per man.

With Elliott and Murakowski in the No. 1 backfield are Purdue's Harry Szulborski, Big Nine ground gaining champion, and Indiana's George Taliaferro, an excellent triple-threat.

The Wolverines' Rifenburg, a polished wingman who topped the Big Nine in pass catching, was the only unanimous choice. Each coach named him on their first team He bagged the maximum of 18 points.

The 250-pound Nomellini was named in every first lineup but one and received 17 points.

The line-punishing Murakowski led the backs in the voting with 15 points followed by Elliott and Szulborski with 12 apiece and Taliaferro with 11 Joe Whisler, Ohio State's bruising fullback, captured eight points and was listed on the second team backfield with Frank Aschenbrenner and Don Burson of Northwestern and Sophomore Chuck Ortmann of Michigan

The closest race developed between the unheralded Kay of Iowa and Purdue's captain, Phil O'Reilly, for tackle. Kay won by a 9-8 point margin O'Reilly was an all-conference selection in 1947. Another, Fullback Russ Steger of Illinois, was dropped to honorable mention by the coaches. Tomasi, Szulborski and Taliaferro were on the 1947 second team

Second team nominees were: Ends—Walt Kersuhs, Illinois, and Bob McKenzie, Iowa tackles — Phil O'Reilly, Purdue, and John Goldsberry, Indiana; guards — Templeton and Herb Seigert, Illinois, center — Clayton Tonnemaker, Minnesota; quarterback—Don Burson, Northwestern; halfbacks — Chuck Ortmann, Michigan, and Frank Aschenbrenner, Northwestern, and Whisler.

Wolves Still Top National Poll

Notre Dame Runnerup, Army Third

NEW YORK—(AP)—Michigan rules the roost in college football for the third straight week by a comfortable margin in the next-to-last Associated Press poll of the 1948 season.

With 105 of 190 first place votes, the Wolverines polled 1,726 points for a lead of 103 over the idle runnerup, Notre Dame Michigan finished its season Saturday by downing Ohio State, 13-3, while Notre Dame still has two more games to play

There were few radical changes in the top 10 after a formful week end, the only startling drop being Penn State's tumble from sixth to 18th place

CADETS THIRD

Army again held third place, although the Cadets were idle awaiting Saturday's finale with Navy, but North Carolina moved into fourth place, displacing California, by a 20-0 decision over Duke. The Michigan-Notre Dame-Army-California lineup had held true for two straight weeks

The California Bears, named the western Rose Bowl team against twice-beaten Northwestern, was ranked fifth. Their New Year's day opponents who walloped Illinois, 20-7, clung to seventh place, one step below Oklahoma

The Oklahoma team's smashing 60-7 romp over Kansas boosted the Sooners from eighth to sixth place. Southern Methodist also advanced two places S M U. was ranked eighth after a 13-6 victory over Baylor Then came Clemson, ninth as it was last week, and Oregon, which finished its campaign with a 10-0 nod over Oregon State Oregon advanced from 13th to 10th, becoming the only new member in the top ten Vanderbilt, No 15, and William and Mary, No 20, were the only newcomers in the top 20 as Cornell and Georgia Tech dropped out.

Renew Rivalry

CLEVELAND—(INS)—One of the oldest rivalries in college football will be renewed Thanksgiving day when the Red Cats of Western Reserve meet the Case Rough Riders at League Park in Cleveland.

GOODBYE BRAKE SCORES

with PERMAFUSE BONDED BRAKES

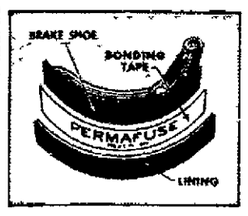
Drum Scoring, caused primarily by rivets, is eliminated when your car or truck brake linings are bonded with PERMAFUSE, the Modern Method of Refining Brakes. Tested and proved More Serviceable, More Practical and More Economical.



Instead of rivets, a strip of the PERMAFUSE Bonding Tape is clamped between the brake shoe and the brake lining and heated in our electric bonding oven until they are virtually fused together. Remember PERMAFUSE for Longer Lasting Brakes.

Stock Deal Inducement Admitted

Textron Official Gives Testimony

BOSTON — (UP) — President Royal S. Little of Textron, incorporated, testified today he made a $250,000 stock deal with the husband of Helen Hayes as a "sweetener" in obtaining the actress' services or a radio program his textile empire sponsored.

Little testified before the Senate investigating subcommittee headed by Sen. Charles W. Tobey, (R-N.H.) that as trustee of the Little family trust he sold Charles MacArthur 10,000 shares of Textron stock at $25 a share June 26, 1945.

Within 48 hours, Little acknowledged under questioning, he purchased 10,000 shares of the same stock at $30 a share in his capacity as trustee of the Rhode Island Charities Trust.

"You were using that sale as a sweetener to get Helen Hayes' services?" asked Tobey.

"That's right," acknowledged Little.

Little said, however, he did not think the Textron stock he bought was the same he sold to MacArthur. He promised to check his records to make certain.

Crosby Picked As Nation's Favorite Star

HOLLYWOOD, — (UP) — Crooner Bing Crosby is the nation's favorite movie star this year, a poll conducted by box-office magazine, movie trade publication, revealed yesterday.

Crosby edged out Ingrid Bergman who had headed the poll for the past two years.

Other leaders, in order, were Cary Grant, Gregory Peck, Betty Grable, Spencer Tracy, Humphrey Bogart and Rita Hayworth.

Less Gas For Ohio

COLUMBUS —(INS)— An Ohio Fuel Gas company official in Columbus reports that central Ohio will receive 10 million cubic feet of natural gas less per day than it had expected because of the explosions at the Big and Little Inch pipelines at Seymour, Ind.

Delivery will be cut 50 million cubic feet a day until it is restored. This will probably not be until next spring, officials estimated.

The 50-million cut represents about one-third of the total daily output of the two "Inch" lines.

Treasurer Succumbs

CLEVELAND — (INS) — Cuyahoga county political circles today mourned the death of John J. Boyle, 79, Democratic county treasurer for the past 19 years. Mr. Boyle died unexpectedly of a cardiac attack at his home in Cleveland last night after a long illness.

Zoos Swap Animals

U. S.-British Make Trade

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The tour of the Washington zoo got around to the Kusimanse, a mousy little critter from tropical Africa. (Scientific name: Crossarchus obscurus.)

That little guy, said Dr. William Mann, zoo head man, came on a trade from England. The doctor's special guest on the tour was Maj. Albert Pam, former treasurer of the Zoological Society of London. The major nodded.

"It was like this," said Dr. Mann. "I was having a little zooey chat in England with Dr. Geoffrey Vevers, the director of the London zoo, one day last summer. I admired his Kusimanse. I said 'you folks have three of these things and the United States has none.'"

Maj. Pam squirmed a little in the presence of the press as though he knew what was coming, which he probably did.

Well, Dr. Mann talked the British zoo-man out of one of his prizes, but before he closed the deal he said he would have to call Washington to see if his zoo had an extra cage.

He picked up Dr. Vevers' phone and called his lieutenant in our capital. After he had finished he called the operator and learned the call cost $15, including tax.

Dr. Mann put his lunch hook into his money pocket, but the Briton nay-nayed him.

"Why fool with the silly exchange of dollars," said the London man. "We'll make a trade. What I would like in exchange for my Kusimanse is a pair of marmots."

What the British call marmots, Americans call prairie dogs. Dr. Mann said he thought he could oblige and of course, he did.

Our tour yesterday turned then to the reptile house and the Washington man gave the Briton his dues.

"The design of this house is a direct steal from the London zoo," he said. "Illumination in the cages. The false bottoms that allow the heat to come up from the floor instead of pouring in from the top. We save the lives of a lot of animals—thanks to the tips I got from the British."

The alligator snapping turtle (Macochelys temminickii) slept happily through the noise that was going on outside his cage. It was 80 inside, just like a turtle of his kind likes. Outside where people were, it was like what people like. About 68.

Another steal from the London zoo. The right temperature for animals; ditto for humans.

Economist Raps Dems

WASHINGTON —(AP— Economist Harold G. Moulton said today the Truman administration attempted in 1946 to "control the vitals of free enterprise"—something, he said, which Franklin D. Roosevelt never tried.

The president of the Brookings Institution, a private research organization, declared that while the Roosevelt reform measures "did come in conflict with the private enterprise system," they did not "strike directly at the basic principle."

But, he said, Mr. Truman's postwar effort to keep wartime controls on such things as prices was a development "much more far-reaching in its potential impact upon the operation of the private enterprise system."

In a pamphlet on "economic systems"—one chapter of a larger work to be published by the institution later—Moulton said: "Ostensibly these controls were to be retained only to guide and stabilize the economy during the period of transition, but there were many within the administration who were interested in their permanent use."

Major Battle Looms In Peiping-Tientsin Area

Loyalist Position Critical

Chinese Reds Closing In

NANKING—(UP)—A major battle between nationalist troops under "ever victorious" nationalist Gen. Fu Tso-Yi and communist soldiers under Gen. Lin Piao shaped up today along a 50-mile line between Peiping and Tientsin.

The government's position in Hopeh province in North China became more critical when the Nationalists abandoned Paoting, about 90 miles southwest of Peiping.

Six columns of communist troops were said to be converging along the Peiping-Tientsin front. Lin's soldiers reportedly reached the east bank of the historic Grand Canal about 45 miles southeast of Peiping.

Fu was said to have deployed a large force in Mataochen and Sossuwu west of the Grand Canal to check the advancing communists, whose primary objective appeared to be disrupting Peiping's rail communications with Tientsin and the coast and to isolate the old Chinese capital.

Meanwhile, Central News agency reported two government columns heading north from Pengpu to reopen tail contact with Suchow smashed to within 16 miles of communist-held Suhsien, a key station between Pengpu and Suchow.

East of Suchow, the so-called Gateway to Nanking, government rescue columns also were reported to have made a two-mile advance in the last 24 hours. The gains narrowed the gap between them and Gen. Huang Po-Tao's encircled forces to 10 miles.

MARSHALL REPORTS

In America, Secretary of State George C. Marshall's personal report to President Truman was expected today to speed important decisions on aid to China.

Marshall touched on China and other foreign policy problems during his hour-long meeting yesterday with the President, and at a luncheon conference with the Chief Executive and the cabinet. The secretary may return to the White House today to continue the general discussion, Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said.

Reliable informants predicted that future meetings would deal specifically with possible United States action on behalf of the hard-pressed Chinese nationalist government.

However, despite Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's plea for U.S. help, it was regarded unlikely that any dramatic or administration formula to meet the Chinese communist advance would be forthcoming immediately. Factors listed by officials familiar with the situation included:

1. The necessity for a top-level review of American foreign policy in Asia. This review would take into consideration the views of "friendly" governments having strategic interests in that continent.

2. Re-evaluation of the communist advances through Manchuria into north China to determine whether nationalist China could be saved with large-scale American economic and military aid.

3. Careful balancing of American interests in Europe and China to determine whether the United States could, in effect, extend the Truman doctrine to China without spreading American help too far to be effective.

This Is a Lot Of Applesauce

A lot of applesauce—144 cases, in fact—were distributed today to city and county schools and institutions.

The applesauce was made available by Surplus Commodities administration. A county truck was sent to Wooster to bring it to Mansfield.

County Supt. of Schools Boyd Robinson said that Mansfield schools received 43 cases, the County Home, six, the tuberculosis sanatorium, three, and the Children's Home, five.

Distribution in the county schools includes: Bellville, nine cases; Butler, eight; Lexington, 11 cases; Lucas, Shelby, and Shiloh, each seven; Madison, 17; Ontario, 15; Union, six.

PUBLICITY STUNT?—Search crews who spent hours fighting bad weather in the search for missing screen star Bobby Breen called his disappearance a hoax after finding he had spent the night at a Wisconsin hotel. (International)

Officials Denounce 'Lost' Tale

See Possible Charges Filed

GLIDDEN, Wis. —(U.P.)— Officials denounced Bobby Breen's "disappearance" into the north woods as a publicity hoax today and began an investigation on whether criminal charges could be lodged against the former child singer and his press agent.

Breen denied that he or his employes had engineered a scheme to gain free advertising. He said it was "just an unfortunate series of circumstances."

But officers who directed the search for Breen in sub-freezing weather were outspoken in their opinion that they were taken for a ride.

"State patrolmen, game wardens and deputies who spent all those hours in the woods hunting for him while he was in a warm lodge are pretty sore," said Undersheriff Clyde Williamson of Sawyer county.

"More than 50 men worked out of our office alone. Some of them are of a mind to run his party out of these woods."

Breen was "found" last night in a resort hotel where he and his pilot, Kenneth Thompson, had been staying for more than 24 hours while ground and air rescue parties searched the woods for them. Breen was registered at a lodge under an assumed name. They had been reported missing on a flight from Milwaukee to Hayward, Wis.

"God forbid that I should do anything like this for publicity," Breen said today. "It would ruin my career and scare the daylights out of my parents."

He claimed he and Thompson were forced down near here by bad weather. He said he tried unsuccessfully to reach Ernie Roth, his advance agent, who reported him missing when the plane failed to arrive at Hayward, Wis.

But the volunteers, pilots and officials who searched him shrugged off his explanation and expressed "disgust at the waste of time and effort and the risk of our lives."

He said they were driven 20 miles off their course and "nearly tipped over" when they landed here. He said they were out of gas and their engine was faltering.

He said a farmer drove them to a hotel here where he registered under a false name, Bob Benedict, to "avoid publicity."

Sheriff's officers took a statement from Breen and said they would study whether charges could be preferred against him.

Ohioan Denies 'Red' Charge

DELAWARE—(UP)—An official of the Methodist Board of Education today denied charges by the House Un-American Activities committee yesterday that the Methodist Federation for Social Action is communistic.

Rev. Lester Norris, executive secretary of the board, said he didn't think the federation could be called communistic.

He said he was a member of the organization and "I know the Rev. James Myers, head of the federation. He has spoken at Ohio Wesleyan university many times and three years ago he spoke at the annual conference in Columbus. He's no communist."

East Port Strike Felt In City

Hits Plant Operations Here

Mansfield's industrial production was threatened today as export shipments from four of the city's major industrial plants continue to be held up by the east coast longshoremen's strike.

"The longshoremen's strike has cut off all export shipments from Mansfield Tire and Rubber company," a company official said. "Continuance of the strike beyond Dec. 1 may necessitate some curtailment in manufacturing operations."

The strike, now in its 13th day, is a counterpart of the 83-day-old strike of longshoremen in San Francisco. New York shippers are scheduled to meet with officials of the International Longshoremen's association, AFL, today to review a compromise peace proposal.

Other plants hit by the coastal tie-up are Ohio Brass company, Barnes Manufacturing company anad Tappan Stove company. Tappan Stove officials, however, said they were affected "very lightly" because of small export trade.

Ohio Brass officials said they were exporting only to Mexico at the time and that they are "stockpiling all export orders here and at the Barberton plant.

STILL PRODUCING

"We're continuing to make the materials required for the orders," an O-B spokesman said, "but we're cut off from all our foreign markets."

D. A. McCullough, vice president of Barnes Manufacturing company, said three carloads of manufactured pumps, bound for Portugal and Venezuela are tied up on the East coast now. Twenty per cent of Barnes's business is export trade.

McCullough, however, said no lay-offs at the plant were foreseen since domestic demand "is great enough to keep the plant running."

Reporting no trouble as a result of the strike were officials of Westinghouse, Farm Tools, Inc., and Empire Steel. Spokesmen added that they anticipated no effects in the near future.

Meanwhile, freight embargoes continued on commercial shipments to the coast where the ports at Portland, Me.; Boston, Mass.; New York City, Port Newark, N. J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Wilmington, Del.; Baltimore, Md., and Hampton Roads, Va., are literally paralyzed by the walk-out.

Ship Strike Deadlocked

NEW YORK — (U.P.) — Federal mediators remained optimistic about an early settlement of the east coast longshoremen's walkout today as shipowners met to consider possible new concessions to the strikers.

"We are looking for a speedy solution," said William N. Margolis, assistant director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation service. "I see nothing that will break down negotiations now."

Representatives of the 65,000 members of the International Longshoremen's association (AFL) who have been on strike for 14 days turned down as "nothing new" a weekend compromise offer by the shippers.

That plan had called for the men to return to work pending negotiations on a welfare plan, demanded by the union along with a 25-cents hourly wage increase.

"We have no right to submit this to our membership," said Joseph P. Ryan, president of the ILA, "because it is no different than the proposition rejected by the members."

John V. Lyon, chairman of the New York Shipping association, said the employers negotiating committee had offered as great concessions as the authority designated to it would allow. He called a meeting of shipowners to ask for an extension of power.

The ILA negotiation committee will meet at 3 p. m. to consider any new offers by the owners, Ryan announced.

WELCOME SHOWER—Tiny Janice Elizabeth Philp, held in the arms of her mother, Mrs. Maud Philp, in Plaistow Maternity hospital, London, has been showered with gifts from America. Born at almost the same time on Nov. 14 as Britain's new prince, the tot attracted attention to her family's impoverished situation. The Philp family, which includes the father, Harry, a Cockney bus driver, and Alan, 18 months old, live in a hut in the worst-bombed section of London's east end. Gifts received during the past week range from bedroom furniture to diaper service.—(AP Wirephoto)

Induction Scheduled Here

First Two Draftees To Leave Friday

The first two Mansfielders to be called into military service under the nation's new peacetime draft will be inducted at the Mansfield army recruiting office Friday at 8 a. m.

John Christopher Frederick, 108 Ford street, and Hollis William Ward, 325 North Main street, are the men selected, the draft board announced today.

The original November quota for the local draft board was four men, but it was modified when the number of rejections was found to be far higher than was originally expected.

The draft law requires that men in the higher age groups be inducted first. Consequently a large proportion of the registrants in the higher age groups are ineligible for the draft because they are veterans, married, or physically or otherwise unfit.

The draft board has classified 436 men. Their classifications are likely to be changed, however, after they have taken pre-induction physical examinations, board spokesmen said.

Questionnaires for men born in 1929 are being sent out, at the rate of 10 a day. All the questionnaires for older men who are single and not veterans have been mailed. Most of the eligible registrants have not been reached, as they fall in the younger age groups.

In November 60 men took pre-induction physical examinations in anticipation of an increased quota for December.

VERDICT SCHEDULED

TOKYO — (UP) — Japanese wartime Premier Hideki Tojo and his 24 co-defendants will get Gen. Douglas MacArthur's verdict on their appeals from war crimes sentences tomorrow morning.

Man Held In Assault

Elmer Treadwell, 28, of 41 Harmon avenue, was charged in municipal court today with assaulting Patrolman Glenn Adams with a dangerous weapon and was ordered held for hearing tomorrow under $1,000 bond. No plea was entered.

Treadwell is accused of striking Adams with the officer's nightstick when the latter tried to break up a fight between Treadwell and an unidentified woman Saturday. Police said Treadwell hit Adams with his fist, grabbed his nightstick and hit him on the head.

Adams was treated at General hospital and released.

The defendant has a long police record, dating back to May, 1938. He has been found guilty of malicious destruction of property, disorderly conduct, resisting an officer, auto theft twice, assault and battery, intoxication and leaving the scene of an accident.

If Treadwell is convicted of the present charge he faces a sentence of three to 30 years in the penitentiary. He already has served time at the Boys' Industrial school, the Ohio State reformatory and the Ohio penitentiary.

Suspension Ires Mayor

Dignity Insulted, Canaday Declares

POMEROY — (AP) — Delmar A. (Kid) Canaday, the ex-prizefighter who got to be mayor of Pomeroy, says a message announcing his suspension last night insults his dignity.

The message, he said, came from Gov. Thomas J. Herbert and informed him he was being suspended as mayor for 30 days on eight charges of misconduct in office. The charges have to do with his handling of fines collected and with his try at buying a $265 water cooler for the state bureau of unemployment compensation office here, Canaday said.

A special messenger brought the message, he said, just as he and his wife were about to leave home for a concert at Gallipolis.

"The messenger seemed to be scared to death," the mayor said, "and insisted he could not say for whom he worked. He finally admitted his name was P. S. Kinsey."

The message, Mayor Canaday added, notified him that he would be given a hearing Dec. 4 in Columbus on the charges.

They were filed several weeks ago by four members of the six-member city council of Pomeroy. The councilmen were Republicans and Canaday, a Democrat, declared they brought the action to embarrass him in his unsuccessful campaign for Congress in the tenth district against Rep. Thomas A. Jenkins of Ironton.

Canaday asserted today that while he lost the election, he carried Pomeroy and believed he had the confidence of a majority of its citizens.

"Why, this insults my dignity," he exclaimed.

Inflation Level-Off Hinted

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Has inflation at last reached its peak—or perhaps even passed it?

There are new signs today that this could be so. But somewhat similar signs appeared in early 1947 and 1948 only to be bowled over by another upsurge in the boom.

Among the latest indications emerging from government reports in the last few days are these:

A two-month decline in the consumer (cost-of-living) price index until, in October, it was only moderately above last January's level.

Also, a dip since August in the general index of wholesale prices—which are more of a guide on future costs at retail—until in October the index dropped slightly below the level of last January.

Not all prices have gone down. Those for metals, which play a major role in determining the price course of many goods, have been rising even more sharply than in 1947.

Prices, however, are only one factor on the scoreboard showing how the inflation contest between supply and demand has been getting along.

SUPPLY BETTER

"Supply of many goods," says the federal reserve board in its latest bulletin, "is now in better balance with demand at current prices than at any time since before the war."

Business has slowed down its buying. Department store sales have dropped below last year in dollar volume for two consecutive weeks, and retail sales in general haven't been showing their old month-by-month climb.

Starts on construction of new home have been declining since April—suggesting, as the federal reserve board put it, "resistance on the part of buyers to current high prices."

Price-resistance is a factor in the retail and department store sales picture too, officials say, although they add that unseasonable weather might have as much or more to do with it.

Washington economists are viewing all this with extreme caution, recalling that there were wrong forecasts when some similar developments occurred in the spring of 1947 and in the opening months of 1948.

Central Park Acquires That Yuletide Look

Mansfield's Central park is beginning to acquire that Christmas look.

Workmen are stringing ropes of laurel leaves, decorated with stars, across the park, and a 30-foot Christmas tree has gone up at the northwest corner of the mid-city beauty spot.

The Retail Merchants association, which sponsors the holiday decorations, hopes to have the Christmas lights turned on in the park Thanksgiving night or Friday.

When the decorations are completed the fountain in the center of the park will be covered to look like a large Christmas bell.

The big Christmas tree will be decorated with plastic ornaments colored balls, and all the traditional yuletide symbols.

The annual decorations are made possible by contributions from Mansfield business establishments which are members of the sponsoring association.

Hunter Finds Man's Skull

NEW LEXINGTON—(UP)—Coroner H. F. Minshull sought today to identify the skull found in a field south of here. A Zanesville man disappeared from that area 11 months ago.

Steve Ciber found the skull late yesterday while looking for his dog between the villages of Congo and Drakes. Residents identified clothing, a watch, and glasses found at the spot as belonging to Henry Hillis, 65, of Zanesville. He has been missing since Jan. 4.

No trace of the rest of the skeleton was found, Dr. Minshull said. There were no marks on the skull, he added.

20 Spies Arrested In Drive

Claim Most Were German

FRANKFURT — (UP) — The United States tightened security along the German-Czechoslovakian border today following the roundup of more than 20 Czechoslovakian spies in the American and British zones of Germany.

U. S. Army headquarters at Heidelberg announced that its counter-intelligence agency had broken the Czechoslovakian ring.

"They will be charged with acts prejudicial to the United States occupation and will be turned over to United States military government authorities," an Army spokesman said.

He added that the spies now were being held under Army supervision at an undisclosed place. A competent source denied they had been smuggled into Germany as anti-communist refugees.

Meantime, constabulary troops manning the outposts on the border between the American zone and the Soviet statellite country were reported to be extremely security conscious.

Americans traveling in the region reported identity documents were being closely examined and that travel in certain directions had been restricted to those obtaining special clearance from constabulary officers.

Headquarters said the entire gang was composed of "mixed nationalities." An authoritative source said they were mostly Germans. They were grabbed in a series of coordinated arrests by counter-intelligence agents. Most of them were reported to have been picked up in Munich, headquarters for the ring, but some were taken in the British zone.

It was the second official spy roundup since the occupation of Germany began.

The Army spokesman estimated it would be "two or three weeks" before further details would be revealed on the latest incident.

NEW RED MOVE

Meanwhile the Russians have prepared a secret plan to halt service on Berlin's elevated railway in the western sectors, the British-licensed news agency DPD said today.

No date has yet been set, the agency said.

However, Taegliche Rundschau, official German language newspaper of the Soviet military administration, said last week that traffic of all kinds would be halted between the eastern and western sectors of Berlin after the Dec. 5 municipal elections in the city.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay reported today that the communist trade union in the Soviet occupation zone had tried in vain to exploit labor unrest in western Germany.

Parents Get Stutter Rap

NORMAN, Okla. (U.P.)—If your children stutter, you yourself may be to blame.

So says Dr. Carl Ritzman, director of speech correction at the University of Oklahoma, Norman.

A large number of stuttering cases, Dr. Ritzman contends, can be blamed on upsetting of the children's emotions by the custom of repressing certain natural instincts.

"Fathers usually cause stuttering by being too polite or too unapproachable to their children," Ritzman says. "The main fault of the mother is making herself appear to be a martyr by working too hard and making too much of a career."

Bulletin

WASHINGTON—(UP)—President Truman will present a "definite" anti-inflation program to the 81st Congress in January, presidential adviser Dr. Edwin G. Nourse said today. Nourse said the anti-inflation program will be outlined generally in President Truman's "State of the Union" message in January.

Industries, Stores Mark Thanksgiving

Thousands In City To Get Holiday

Most Mansfield business and industrial firms will halt operations Thursday to give thousands of workers a chance to spend Thanksgiving at home with their families.

All public offices, banks, and most stores in the city will be closed all day. A few restaurants will be open to serve diners who think it's cheaper to dine out than buy turkey.

The Empire Steel plant, which because of the heated furnaces used in the making of steel and the current heavy demand for that product, will continue working throughout the day in regular shifts. Even the office force at the plant is expected to work at least a part of the day, officials of the company said.

Only the Mansfield Tire and Rubber company will extend its holiday through Friday. Office employes, however, will return to work Friday morning after a one-day holiday.

The Mansfield post office will be closed all day Thanksgiving. There will be no mail deliveries on city, rural, or mounted routes. Outgoing mail will be dispatched as usual.

The regular holiday schedule of collections will be followed Thursday. The first business collection will begin at 8 a. m., a combined business and residential collection at noon, and the final business collection at 4 p. m.

Mansfield, Madison township and Richland county schools will close at the regular time Wednesday afternoon and pupils will not resume their studies until the following Monday morning.

Zoos Swap Animals

U. S.-British Make Trade

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The tour of the Washington zoo got around to the Kusimanse, a mousy little critter from tropical Africa. (Scientific name: Crossarchus obscurus.)

That little guy, said Dr. William Mann, zoo head man, came on a trade from England. The doctor's special guest on the tour was Maj. Albert Pam, former treasurer of the Zoological Society of London. The major nodded.

"It was like this," said Dr. Mann. "I was having a little zooey chat in England with Dr. Geoffrey Vevers, the director of the London zoo, one day last summer. I admired his Kusimanse. I said 'you folks have three of these things and the United States has none.'"

Maj. Pam squirmed a little in the presence of the press as though he knew what was coming, which he probably did.

Well, Dr. Mann talked the British zoo-man out of one of his prizes, but before he closed the deal he said he would have to call Washington to see if his zoo had an extra cage.

He picked up Dr. Vevers' phone and called his lieutenant in our capital. After he had finished he called the operator and learned the call cost $15, including tax.

Dr. Mann put his lunch hook into his money pocket, but the Briton nay-nayed him.

"Why fool with the silly exchange of dollars," said the London man. "We'll make a trade. What I would like in exchange for my Kusimanse is a pair of marmots."

What the British call marmots, Americans call prairie dogs. Dr. Mann said he thought he could oblige and of course, he did.

Our tour yesterday turned then to the reptile house and the Washington man gave the Briton his dues.

"The design of this house is a direct steal from the London zoo," he said. "Illumination in the cages. The false bottoms that allow the heat to come up from the floor instead of pouring in from the top. We save the lives of a lot of animals—thanks to the tips I got from the British."

The alligator snapping turtle (Macochelys temminickii) slept happily through the noise that was going on outside his cage. It was 80 inside, just like a turtle of his kind likes. Outside where people were, it was like what people like. About 68.

Another steal from the London zoo. The right temperature for animals; ditto for humans.

Economist Raps Dems

WASHINGTON —(AP— Economist Harold G. Moulton said today the Truman administration attempted in 1946 to "control the vitals of free enterprise"—something, he said, which Franklin D. Roosevelt never tried.

The president of the Brookings Institution, a private research organization, declared that while the Roosevelt reform measures "did come in conflict with the private enterprise system," they did not "strike directly at the basic principle."

But, he said, Mr. Truman's postwar effort to keep wartime controls on such things as prices was a development "much more far-reaching in its potential impact upon the operation of the private enterprise system."

In a pamphlet on "economic systems"—one chapter of a larger work to be published by the institution later—Moulton said: "Ostensibly these controls were to be retained only to guide and stabilize the economy during the period of transition, but there were many within the administration who were interested in their permanent use."

Major Battle Looms In Peiping-Tientsin Area

Loyalist Position Critical

Chinese Reds Closing In

NANKING—(UP)—A major battle between nationalist troops under "ever victorious" nationalist Gen. Fu Tso-Yi and communist soldiers under Gen. Lin Piao shaped up today along a 50-mile line between Peiping and Tientsin.

The government's position in Hopeh province in North China became more critical when the Nationalists abandoned Paoting, about 90 miles southwest of Peiping.

Six columns of communist troops were said to be converging along the Peiping-Tientsin front. Lin's soldiers reportedly reached the east bank of the historic Grand Canal about 45 miles southeast of Peiping.

Fu was said to have deployed a large force in Mataochen and Sossuwu west of the Grand Canal to check the advancing communists, whose primary objective appeared to be disrupting Peiping's rail communications with Tientsin and the coast and to isolate the old Chinese capital.

Meanwhile, Central News agency reported two government columns heading north from Pengpu to reopen rail contact with Suchow smashed to within 16 miles of communist-held Suhsien, a key station between Pengpu and Suchow.

East of Suchow, the so-called Gateway to Nanking, government rescue columns also were reported to have made a two-mile advance in the last 24 hours. The gains narrowed the gap between them and Gen. Huang Po-Tao's encircled forces to 10 miles.

MARSHALL REPORTS

In America, Secretary of State George C. Marshall's personal report to President Truman was expected today to speed important decisions on aid to China.

Marshall touched on China and other foreign policy problems during his hour-long meeting yesterday with the President, and at a luncheon conference with the Chief Executive and the cabinet. The secretary may return to the White House today to continue the general discussion, Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said.

Reliable informants predicted that future meetings would deal specifically with possible United States action on behalf of the hard-pressed Chinese nationalist government.

However, despite Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's plea for U.S. help, it was regarded unlikely that any dramatic or administration formula to meet the Chinese communist advance would be forthcoming immediately. Factors listed by officials familiar with the situation included:

1. The necessity for a top-level review of American foreign policy in Asia. This review would take into consideration the views of "friendly" governments having strategic interests in that continent.

2. Re-evaluation of the communist advances through Manchuria into north China to determine whether nationalist China could be saved with large-scale American economic and military aid.

3. Careful balancing of American interests in Europe and China to determine whether the United States could, in effect, extend the Truman doctrine to China without spreading American help too far to be effective.

This Is a Lot Of Applesauce

A lot of applesauce—144 cases, in fact—were distributed today to city and county schools and institutions.

The applesauce was made available by Surplus Commodities administration. A county truck was sent to Wooster to bring it to Mansfield.

County Supt. of Schools Boyd Robinson said that Mansfield schools received 43 cases, the County Home, six, the tuberculosis sanatorium, three, and the Children's Home, five.

Distribution in the county schools includes: Bellville, nine cases; Butler, eight; Lexington, 11 cases; Lucas, Shelby, and Shiloh, each seven; Madison, 17; Ontario, 15; Union, six.

PUBLICITY STUNT?—Search crews who spent hours fighting bad weather in the search for missing screen star Bobby Breen called his disappearance a hoax after finding he had spent the night at a Wisconsin hotel. (International)

Officials Denounce 'Lost' Tale

See Possible Charges Filed

GLIDDEN, Wis. —(U.P.)— Officials denounced Bobby Breen's "disappearance" into the north woods as a publicity hoax today and began an investigation on whether criminal charges could be lodged against the former child singer and his press agent.

Breen denied that he or his employes had engineered a scheme to gain free advertising. He said it was "just an unfortunate series of circumstances."

But officers who directed the search for Breen in sub-freezing weather were outspoken in their opinion that they were taken for a ride.

"State patrolmen, game wardens and deputies who spent all those hours in the woods hunting for him while he was in a warm lodge are pretty sore," said Undersheriff Clyde Williamson of Sawyer county.

"More than 50 men worked out of our office alone. Some of them are of a mind to run his party out of these woods."

Breen was "found" last night in a resort hotel where he and his pilot, Kenneth Thompson, had been staying for more than 24 hours while ground and air rescue parties searched the woods for them. Breen was registered at a lodge under an assumed name. They had been reported missing on a flight from Milwaukee to Hayward, Wis.

"God forbid that I should do anything like this for publicity," Breen said today. "It would ruin my career and scare the daylights out of my parents."

He claimed he and Thompson were forced down near here by bad weather. He said he tried unsuccessfully to reach Ernie Roth, his advance agent, who reported him missing when the plane failed to arrive at Hayward, Wis.

But the volunteers, pilots and officials who searched him shrugged off his explanation and expressed "disgust at the waste of time and effort and the risk of our lives."

He said they were driven 20 miles off their course and "nearly tipped over" when they landed here. He said they were out of gas and their engine was faltering.

He said a farmer drove them to a hotel here where he registered under a false name, Bob Benedict, to "avoid publicity."

Sheriff's officers took a statement from Breen and said they would study whether charges could be preferred against him.

Ohioan Denies 'Red' Charge

DELAWARE—(UP)—An official of the Methodist Board of Education today denied charges by the House Un-American Activities committee yesterday that the Methodist Federation for Social Action is communistic.

Rev. Lester Norris, executive secretary of the board, said he didn't think the federation could be called communistic.

He said he was a member of the organization and "I know the Rev. James Myers, head of the federation. He has spoken at Ohio Wesleyan university many times and three years ago he spoke at the annual conference in Columbus. He's no communist."

East Port Strike Felt In City

Hits Plant Operations Here

Mansfield's industrial production was threatened today as export shipments from four of the city's major industrial plants continue to be held up by the east coast longshoremen's strike.

"The longshoremen's strike has cut off all export shipments from Mansfield Tire and Rubber company," a company official said. "Continuance of the strike beyond Dec. 1 may necessitate some curtailment in manufacturing operations."

The strike, now in its 13th day, is a counterpart of the 88-day-old strike of longshoremen in San Francisco. New York shippers are scheduled to meet with officials of the International Longshoremen's association, AFL, today to review a compromise peace proposal.

Other plants hit by the coastal tie-up are Ohio Brass company, Barnes Manufacturing company anad Tappan Stove company. Tappan Stove officials, however, said they were affected "very lightly" because of small export trade.

Ohio Brass officials said they were exporting only to Mexico at the time and that they are "stockpiling all export orders here and at the Barberton plant.

STILL PRODUCING

"We're continuing to make the materials required for the orders," an O-B spokesman said, "but we're cut off from all our foreign markets."

D. A. McCullough, vice president of Barnes Manufacturing company, said three carloads of manufactured pumps, bound for Portugal and Venezuela are tied up on the East coast now. Twenty per cent of Barnes's business is export trade.

McCullough, however, said no lay-offs at the plant were foreseen since domestic demand "is great enough to keep the plant running."

Reporting no trouble as a result of the strike were officials of Westinghouse, Farm Tools, Inc., and Empire Steel. Spokesmen added that they anticipated no effects in the near future.

Meanwhile, freight embargoes continued on commercial shipments to the coast where the ports at Portland, Me.; Boston, Mass.; New York City, Port Newark, N. J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Wilmington, Del.; Baltimore, Md., and Hampton Roads, Va., are literally paralyzed by the walk-out.

Ship Strike Deadlocked

NEW YORK — (U.P.) — Federal mediators remained optimistic about an early settlement of the east coast longshoremen's walkout today as shipowners met to consider possible new concessions to the strikers.

"We are looking for a speedy solution," said William N. Margolis, assistant director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation service. "I see nothing that will break down negotiations now."

Representatives of the 65,000 members of the International Longshoremen's association (AFL) who have been on strike for 14 days turned down as "nothing new" a weekend compromise offer by the shippers.

That plan had called for the men to return to work pending negotiations on a welfare plan, demanded by the union along with a 25-cents hourly wage increase.

"We have no right to submit this to our membership," said Joseph P. Ryan, president of the ILA, "because it is no different than the proposition rejected by the members."

John V. Lyon, chairman of the New York Shipping association, said the employers negotiating committee had offered as great concessions as the authority designated to it would allow. He called a meeting of shipowners to ask for an extension of power.

The ILA negotiation committee will meet at 3 p. m. to consider any new offers by the owners, Ryan announced.

Induction Scheduled Here

First Two Draftees To Leave Friday

The first two Mansfielders to be called into military service under the nation's new peacetime draft will be inducted at the Mansfield army recruiting office Friday at 8 a. m.

John Christopher Frederick, 108 Ford street, and Hollis William Ward, 325 North Main street, are the men selected, the draft board announced today.

The original November quota for the local draft board was four men, but it was modified when the number of rejections was found to be far higher than was originally expected.

The draft law requires that men in the higher age groups be inducted first. Consequently a large proportion of the registrants in the higher age groups are ineligible for the draft because they are veterans, married, or physically or otherwise unfit.

The draft board has classified 436 men. Their classifications are likely to be changed, however, after they have taken pre-induction physical examinations, board spokesmen said.

Questionnaires for men born in 1929 are being sent out, at the rate of 10 a day. All the questionnaires for older men who are single and not veterans have been mailed. Most of the eligible registrants have not been reached, as they fall in the younger age groups.

In November 60 men took pre-induction physical examinations in anticipation of an increased quota for December.

VERDICT SCHEDULED

TOKYO — (UP) — Japanese wartime Premier Hideki Tojo and his 24 co-defendants will get Gen. Douglas MacArthur's verdict on their appeals from war crimes sentences tomorrow morning.

Man Held In Assault

Elmer Treadwell, 28, of 41 Harmon avenue, was charged in municipal court today with assaulting Patrolman Glenn Adams with a dangerous weapon and was ordered held for hearing tomorrow under $1,000 bond. No plea was entered.

Treadwell is accused of striking Adams with the officer's nightstick when the latter tried to break up a fight between Treadwell and an unidentified woman Saturday. Police said Treadwell hit Adams with his fist, grabbed his nightstick and hit him on the head.

Adams was treated at General hospital and released.

The defendant has a long police record, dating back to May, 1938. He has been found guilty of malicious destruction of property, disorderly conduct, resisting an officer, auto theft twice, assault and battery, intoxication and leaving the scene of an accident.

If Treadwell is convicted of the present charge he faces a sentence of three to 30 years in the penitentiary. He already has served time at the Boys' Industrial school, the Ohio State reformatory and the Ohio penitentiary.

Suspension Ires Mayor

Dignity Insulted, Canaday Declares

POMEROY — (AP) — Delmar A. (Kid) Canaday, the ex-prizefighter who got to be mayor of Pomeroy, says a message announcing his suspension last night insults his dignity.

The message, he said, came from Gov. Thomas J. Herbert and informed him he was being suspended as mayor for 30 days on eight charges of misconduct in office. The charges have to do with his handling of fines collected and with his try at buying a $265 water cooler for the state bureau of unemployment compensation office here, Canaday said.

A special messenger brought the message, he said, just as he and his wife were about to leave home for a concert at Gallipolis.

"The messenger seemed to be scared to death," the mayor said, "and insisted he could not say for whom he worked. He finally admitted his name was P. S. Kinsey."

The message, Mayor Canaday added, notified him that he would be given a hearing Dec. 4 in Columbus on the charges.

They were filed several weeks ago by four members of the six-member city council of Pomeroy. The councilmen were Republicans and Canaday, a Democrat, declared they brought the action to embarrass him in his unsuccessful campaign for Congress in the tenth district against Rep. Thomas A. Jenkins of Ironton.

Canaday asserted today that while he lost the election, he carried Pomeroy and believed he had the confidence of a majority of its citizens.

"Why, this insults my dignity," he exclaimed.

Inflation Level-Off Hinted

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Has inflation at last reached its peak—or perhaps even passed it?

There are new signs today that this could be so. But somewhat similar signs appeared in early 1947 and 1948 only to be bowled over by another upsurge in the boom.

Among the latest indications emerging from government reports in the last few days are these:

A two-month decline in the consumer (cost-of-living) price index until, in October, it was only moderately above last January's level.

Also, a dip since August in the general index of wholesale prices—which are more of a guide on future costs at retail—until in October the index dropped slightly below the level of last January.

Not all prices have gone down. Those for metals, which play a major role in determining the price course of many goods, have been rising even more sharply than in 1947.

Prices, however, are only one factor on the scoreboard showing how the inflation contest between supply and demand has been getting along.

SUPPLY BETTER

"Supply of many goods," says the federal reserve board in its latest bulletin, "is now in better balance with demand at current prices, than at any time since before the war."

Business has slowed down its buying. Department store sales have dropped below last year in dollar volume for two consecutive weeks, and retail sales in general haven't been showing their old month-by-month climb.

Starts on construction of new home have been declining since April—suggesting, as the federal reserve board put it, "resistance on the part of buyers to current high prices."

Price-resistance is a factor in the retail and department store sales picture too, officials say, although they add that unseasonable weather might have as much or more to do with it.

Washington economists are viewing all this with extreme caution, recalling that there were wrong forecasts when some similar developments occurred in the spring of 1947 and in the opening months of 1948.

Central Park Acquires That Yuletide Look

Mansfield's Central park is beginning to acquire that Christmas look.

Workmen are stringing ropes of laurel leaves, decorated with stars, across the park, and a 30-foot Christmas tree has gone up at the northwest corner of the mid-city beauty spot.

The Retail Merchants association, which sponsors the holiday decorations, hopes to have the Christmas lights turned on in the park Thanksgiving night or Friday.

When the decorations are completed the fountain in the center of the park will be covered to look like a large Christmas bell.

The big Christmas tree will be decorated with plastic ornaments colored balls, and all the traditional yuletide symbols.

The annual decorations are made possible by contributions from Mansfield business establishments which are members of the sponsoring association.

Hunter Finds Man's Skull

NEW LEXINGTON—(AP)—Coroner H. F. Minshull sought today to identify the skull found in a field south of here. A Zanesville man disappeared from that area 11 months ago.

Steve Ciber found the skull late yesterday while looking for his dog between the villages of Congo and Drakes. Residents identified clothing, a watch, and glasses found at the spot as belonging to Henry Hillis, 65, of Zanesville. He has been missing since Jan. 4.

No trace of the rest of the skeleton was found. Dr. Minshull said. There were no marks on the skull, he added.

20 Spies Arrested In Drive

Claim Most Were German

FRANKFURT — (UP) — The United States tightened security along the German-Czechoslovakian border today following the roundup of more than 20 Czechoslovakian spies in the American and British zones of Germany.

U. S. Army headquarters at Heidelberg announced that its counter-intelligence agents had broken the Czechoslovakian ring.

"They will be charged with acts prejudicial to the United States occupation and will be turned over to United States military government authorities," an Army spokesman said.

He added that the spies now were being held under Army supervision at an undisclosed place. A competent source denied they had been smuggled into Germany as anti-communist refugees.

Meantime, constabulary troops manning the outposts on the border between the American zone and the Soviet statellite country were reported to be extremely security conscious.

Americans traveling in the region reported identity documents were being closely examined and that travel in certain directions had been restricted to those obtaining special clearance from constabulary officers.

Headquarters said the entire gang was composed of "mixed nationalities." An authoritative source said they were mostly Germans. They were grabbed in a series of coordinated arrests by counter-intelligence agents. Most of them were reported to have been picked up in Munich, headquarters for the ring, but some were taken in the British zone.

It was the second official spy roundup since the occupation of Germany began.

The Army spokesman estimated it would be "two or three weeks" before further details would be revealed on the latest incident.

NEW RED MOVE

Meanwhile the Russians have prepared a secret plan to halt service on Berlin's elevated railway in the western sectors, the British-licensed news agency DPD said today.

No date has yet been set, the agency said.

However, Taegliche Rundschau, official German language newspaper of the Soviet military administration, said last week that traffic of all kinds would be halted between the eastern and western sectors of Berlin after the Dec. 5 municipal elections in the city.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay reported today that the communist trade union in the Soviet occupation zone had tried in vain to exploit labor unrest in western Germany.

Parents Get Stutter Rap

NORMAN, Okla. (U.P.)—If your children stutter, you yourself may be to blame.

So says Dr. Carl Ritzman, director of speech correction at the University of Oklahoma, Norman.

A large number of stuttering cases, Dr. Ritzman contends, can be blamed on upsetting of the children's emotions by the custom of repressing certain natural instincts.

"Fathers usually cause stuttering by being too polite or too unapproachable to their children," Ritzman says. "The main fault of the mother is making herself appear to be a martyr by working too hard and making too much of a career."

Bulletin

WASHINGTON—(UP)—President Truman will present a "definite" anti-inflation program to the 81st Congress in January, presidential adviser Dr. Edwin G. Nourse said today. Nourse said the anti-inflation program will be outlined generally in President Truman's "State of the Union" message in January.

Industries, Stores Mark Thanksgiving

Thousands In City To Get Holiday

Most Mansfield business and industrial firms will halt operations Thursday to give thousands of workers a chance to spend Thanksgiving at home with their families.

All public offices, banks, and most stores in the city will be closed all day. A few restaurants will be open to serve diners who think it's cheaper to dine out than buy turkey.

The Empire Steel plant, which because of the heated furnaces used in the making of steel and the current heavy demand for that product, will continue working throughout the day in regular shifts. Even the office force at the plant is expected to work at least a part of the day, officials of the company said.

Only the Mansfield Tire and Rubber company will extend its holiday through Friday. Office employes, however, will return to work Friday morning after a one-day holiday.

The Mansfield post office will be closed all day Thanksgiving. There will be no mail deliveries on city, rural, or mounted routes. Outgoing mail will be dispatched as usual.

The regular holiday schedule of collections will be followed Thursday. The first business collection will begin at 8 a. m., a combined business and residential collection at noon, and the final business collection at 4 p. m.

Mansfield, Madison township and Richland county schools will close at the regular time Wednesday afternoon and pupils will not resume their studies until the following Monday morning.

Youthful Mother Staves Off Kill-Crazy Sailor Husband

Saves Life In Fight For Pistol

Irate Spouse Shoots Two

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—(U.P.)—Police told today how a frail, 105-pound brunet grappled 15 minutes for her life with her estranged husband yesterday after he slew her brother and severely wounded her father.

They said Mrs. Evelyn Parrish, 22, battled for a Luger pistol until officers arrived. The couple's 22-month old daughter looked on during the struggle.

The husband, Navy yeoman 3/c William Walter Parrish, 21 of North Wilkesboro, N. C., was charged with first degree murder, police said, after he calmly admitted the shootings and told them:

"I went there to kill her and to kill myself."

Instead, his shots killed Stacey Harris, 21, and critically wounded William F. Harris, 68, the father.

Mrs. Parris said her husband must have been "mad because I've been seeing another boy and because I pawned our rings to buy milk for the baby."

Her hands were bruised and swollen, police said, from the struggle with her husband, on leave from the Norfolk, Va., naval base.

The youthful, pretty mother said her husband walked into her home last night and fired point blank at her brother, killing him with a shot near the heart.

Then he shot at her father, wounding him in the hip, Mrs. Parrish said. Her mother ran for aid and Mrs. Parrish struggled for the gun while the baby looked on, screaming.

Six officers hesitated "five or six minutes" outside the house before entering, fearing that Parrish might harm the child or open fire.

"I had a hold on the gun and I wouldn't turn it loose," Mrs. Parrish told in tears.

Still wearing his Navy uniform, Parrish sat calmly in his cell today as authorities awaited a report on the condition of the wounded father.

Noted Shipping Firm Does About Face; Backs Seaway

CLEVELAND —(AP)— The St. Lawrence seaway project now has the backing of a major Great Lakes shipping firm as a water route to bring iron ore into the midwest.

M. A. Hanna company, operator of iron ore mines, coal mines and lake vessels, became the first lake shipping interest to reverse itself publicly on a long standing opposition to the project.

What the rest of the lake shippers would do was not immediately apparent.

The Lake Carriers association, whose membership includes Hanna and most of the important lake shippers, has led the Great Lakes opposition to the St. Lawrence project for years.

When it became known yesterday that Hanna favored the waterway as an ore route, association President John T. Hutchinson was asked for comment. He said he would have no statement to make until the completion of a study now being made. A group of association members now is studying any new legislation that may come before Congress, he said.

The reason for Hanna's reversal is the shift in importance of the sources of high grade iron ore. For decades, the center of high grade ore has been the Lake Superior district at the head of the Great Lakes. Huge freighters transport the ore to the lower lakes, the water distance from Duluth, Minn., to Cleveland being 835 miles. The Pittsburgh and midwest steel districts, being close to the sources of coal, use both in the making of steel.

But reserves of high grade ores in the Lake Superior district are dwindling, and Hanna has been one of the pioneers in seeking similar ores in the Quebec and Labrador districts. It has undertaken these developments in association with Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines, Limited.

George M. Humphrey, Hanna president, told a reporter yesterday he had written letters to Ohio Senators Robert A. Taft and John W. Bricker urging them to give the seaway project "thoughtful review."

Judgment, Interest Asked In Crawford

BUCYRUS—An action has been filed in Crawford County Common Pleas court here by Marian C. Freese, Galion, against Charles E. Hilbert, also of Galion, in which judgment of $1,506 plus interest totaling $941 is asked.

The plaintiff alleges that on July 9, 1938, Grover C. Freese, as administrator of the estate of William A. Freese, deceased, was awarded a judgment against Hilbert for $1,506 and that on Dec. 15, 1939 she became owner of the judgment by transfer from Freese. The petition states the judgment is unpaid.

Award Given To Teacher In Ashland

'Honor Citizen' Pin Presented

ASHLAND — Mrs. Edna Gamertsfelder, veteran Ashland teacher who has returned from retirement to relieve the teacher shortage, is Ashland county's first Golden Rule Honor Citizen.

The white-haired teacher received the honor and a ruby and diamond studded gold pin during the Ashland Booster club's first presentation of "The Best is Yet To Come" series of stage shows Saturday night at McDowell auditorium.

A committee of Ashland countians, headed by Charles Spies, made the selection from among numerous nominations for the honor. An Honor Citizens is to be selected each month prior to the presentation of the monthly "Best is Yet To Come" shows.

Mrs. Gamertsfelder, widowed in 1909 when her minister husband died, had resumed her teaching career at that time, retiring 10 years ago.

The retirement was short-lived, however, for she was recalled as a substitute when the teacher shortage became acute during the war and is this year teaching an overflow class of 15 first-graders at Osborn school.

Some of her present pupils are grandchildren of former pupils, Mrs Gamertsfelder proudly states.

1,000 Children Delighted By Red Riding Hood Story

By NITA BRANSON

A thousand excited grade school children saw an enchanting Little Red Riding Hood saved from the clutches of the Big Bad Wolf just in the nick of time in Johnny Appleseed auditorium this morning.

It was the annual Edwin Strawbridge production of "Little Red Riding Hood," and the first of four performances to be given here. Brinkerhoff, Carpenter and Appleseed pupils saw the performance at 1:45 p. m. today.

Tomorrow, there will be two similar performances for the remainder of Mansfield's school children at John Simpson auditorium.

With childlike exuberance, the children this morning shouted their approval of Lisa Parnova's portrayal of the child heroine and the tricky antics of Hal Elliott as the Wolf. They were equally enthusiastic over the ballet dancing of Parnova and the cast of eight other performers.

Their enthusiasm reached the peak when, in the final scene as the Wolf is about to clutch Little Red Riding Hood with his huge hands, she was saved by the Dark Baron and her playmates. The cry that went up from 1,000 small throats should have scared the Wolf out of his wits and saved the day for the heroine even if she hadn't been rescued.

This morning's audience was comprised of Hedges, Prospect and Woodland school pupils.

The production is under the auspices of the P-TA council.

CIO Fight Steps Up

PORTLAND, Ore. — (CP) — Anti-communist CIO officials interpreted President Philip Murray's new blast at communism today as the signal for an enforced purge of left wing leaders in small unions and for an internal housecleaning in larger left wing unions

The new CIO line against its own communists and fellow travelers was set yesterday in three unexpectedly bitter speeches by Murray before the opening session of the 10th CIO convention.

In past years, Murray has kept the factional row behind closed doors. But he aired it in public yesterday. As a result, the jubilant right wing laid noisy siege to the left on a scale never seen at previous CIO conventions.

The next outbreak will come on the report of the resolutions committee and the minority report from left wing members of that group Because speeches were scheduled today by Sen. Wayne L. Morse, R., Ore., and Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin, the fight may not be renewed until tomorrow.

Youthful Mother Staves Off Kill-Crazy Sailor Husband

Saves Life In Fight For Pistol

Irate Spouse Shoots Two

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—(U.P.)—Police told today how a frail, 105-pound brunet grappled 15 minutes for her life with her estranged husband yesterday after he slew her brother and severely wounded her father.

They said Mrs. Evelyn Parrish, 22, battled for a Luger pistol until officers arrived. The couple's 22-month old daughter looked on during the struggle.

The husband, Navy yeoman 3/c William Walter Parrish, 21 of North Wilkesboro, N. C., was charged with first degree murder, police said, after he calmly admitted the shootings and told them: "I went there to kill her and to kill myself."

Instead, his shots killed Stacey Harris, 21, and critically wounded William F. Harris, 68, the father.

Mrs. Parris said her husband must have been "mad because I've been seeing another boy and because I pawned our rings to buy milk for the baby."

Her hands were bruised and swollen, police said, from the struggle with her husband, on leave from the Norfolk, Va., naval base.

The youthful, pretty mother said her husband walked into her home last night and fired point blank at her brother, killing him with a shot near the heart.

Then he shot at her father, wounding him in the hip, Mrs. Parrish said. Her mother ran for aid and Mrs. Parrish struggled for the gun while the baby looked on, screaming.

Six officers hesitated "five or six minutes" outside the house before entering, fearing that Parrish might harm the child or open fire.

"I had a hold on the gun and I wouldn't turn it loose," Mrs. Parrish told in tears.

Still wearing his Navy uniform, Parrish sat calmly in his cell today as authorities awaited a report on the condition of the wounded father.

Noted Shipping Firm Does About Face; Backs Seaway

CLEVELAND —(AP)— The St. Lawrence seaway project now has the backing of a major Great Lakes shipping firm as a water route to bring iron ore into the midwest.

M. A. Hanna company, operator of iron ore mines, coal mines and lake vessels, became the first lake shipping interest to reverse itself publicly on a long standing opposition to the project.

What the rest of the lake shippers would do was not immediately apparent.

The Lake Carriers association, whose membership includes Hanna and most of the important lake shippers, has led the Great Lakes opposition to the St. Lawrence project for years.

When it became known yesterday that Hanna favored the waterway as an ore route, association President John T. Hutchinson was asked for comment. He said he would have no statement to make until the completion of a study now being made. A group of association members now is studying any new legislation that may come before Congress, he said.

The reason for Hanna's reversal is the shift in importance of the sources of high grade iron ore. For decades, the center of high grade ore has been the Lake Superior district at the head of the Great Lakes. Huge freighters transport the ore to the lower lakes, the water distance from Duluth, Minn., to Cleveland being 835 miles. The Pittsburgh and midwest steel districts, being close to the sources of coal, use both in the making of steel.

But reserves of high grade ores in the Lake Superior district are dwindling, and Hanna has been one of the pioneers in seeking similar ores in the Quebec and Labrador districts. It has undertaken these developments in association with Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines, Limited.

George M. Humphrey, Hanna president, told a reporter yesterday he had written letters to Ohio Senators Robert A. Taft and John W. Bricker urging them to give the seaway project "thoughtful review."

Award Given To Teacher In Ashland

'Honor Citizen' Pin Presented

ASHLAND — Mrs. Edna Gamertsfelder, veteran Ashland teacher who has returned from retirement to relieve the teacher shortage, is Ashland county's first Golden Rule Honor Citizen.

The white-haired teacher received the honor and a ruby and diamond studded gold pin during the Ashland Booster club's first presentation of "The Best is Yet To Come" series of stage shows Saturday night at McDowell auditorium.

A committee of Ashland countians, headed by Charles Spies, made the selection from among numerous nominations for the honor. An Honor Citizens is to be selected each month prior to the presentation of the monthly "Best is Yet To Come" shows.

Mrs. Gamertsfelder, widowed in 1909 when her minister husband died, had resumed her teaching career at that time, retiring 10 years ago.

The retirement was short-lived, however, for she was recalled as a substitute when the teacher shortage became acute during the war and is this year teaching an overflow class of 15 first-graders at Osborn school.

Some of her present pupils are grandchildren of former pupils, Mrs. Gamertsfelder proudly states.

1,000 Children Delighted By Red Riding Hood Story

By NITA BRANSON

A thousand excited grade school children saw an enchanting Little Red Riding Hood saved from the clutches of the Big Bad Wolf just in the nick of time in Johnny Appleseed auditorium this morning.

It was the annual Edwin Strawbridge production of "Little Red Riding Hood," and the first of four performances to be given here. Brinkerhoff, Carpenter and Appleseed pupils saw the performance at 1:45 p. m. today.

Tomorrow, there will be two similar performances for the remainder of Mansfield's school children at John Simpson auditorium.

With childlike exuberance, the children this morning shouted their approval of Lisa Parnova's portrayal of the child heroine and the tricky antics of Hal Elliott as the Wolf. They were equally enthusiastic over the ballet dancing of Parnova and the cast of eight other performers.

Their enthusiasm reached the peak when, in the final scene as the Wolf is about to clutch Little Red Riding Hood with his huge hands, she was saved by the Dark Baron and her playmates. The cry that went up from 1,000 small throats should have scared the Wolf out of his wits and saved the day for the heroine even if she hadn't been rescued.

This morning's audience was comprised of Hedges, Prospect and Woodland school pupils.

The production is under the auspices of the P-TA council.

CIO Fight Steps Up

PORTLAND, Ore. — (U.P.) — Anti-communist CIO officials interpreted President Philip Murray's new blast at communism today as the signal for an enforced purge of left wing leaders in small unions and for an internal housecleaning in larger left wing unions.

The new CIO line against its own communists and fellow travelers was set yesterday in three unexpectedly bitter speeches by Murray before the opening session of the 10th CIO convention.

In past years, Murray has kept the factional row behind closed doors. But he aired it in public yesterday. As a result, the jubilant right wing laid noisy siege to the left on a scale never seen at previous CIO conventions.

The next outbreak will come on the report of the resolutions committee and the minority report from left wing members of that group. Because speeches were scheduled today by Sen. Wayne L. Morse, R., Ore., and Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin, the fight may not be renewed until tomorrow.

PAGE FOUR MANSFIELD, OHIO, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1948

How about taking a poll to learn what people think about polls?

Those who have reason to "play-it-safe" have discovered that secret contributions to both parties serves the purpose nicely.

It appears there's nothing wrong with the GOP that advice from the conservatives, liberals and middle-of-the-roaders wouldn't correct.

Those Cheery Little Christmas Seals

ONE CENT is still the price being asked for a Christmas seal, and from now until Christmas something will seem to be missing from every piece of mail that doesn't carry one of these little messages of cheer to the recipient.

Many thousands of Mansfielders and Richland county residents have already received one or more sheets of these seals, with request that they be used, and remittance made to the Christmas Seal Sale Committee, 608 Walpark building.

Purposes of funds derived from this sale of seals have become so well known, during the years since this movement was started, that repetition seems unnecessary, but it may again be pointed out that great impetus has been given to the local fight against tuberculosis by careful use of the money that has been made available in this way.

Local interest in the subject of reducing the toll of tuberculosis is evidenced by support of bond issues which will soon result in Richland county having a new and more commodious TB sanatorium, and widespread purchase of Christmas seals will assure carrying on the work necessary in disclosing active cases of tuberculosis and starting treatment in early stages, when there can be greatest hope for full recovery.

The "Do It Now" suggestion fits admirably into the matter of mailing a check for the Christmas seals you have just received through the mail, as the voluntary workers engaged in this campaign will thus be relieved of making a later check-up on outstanding seals.

Religion and Communism Do Not Mix

ONE THING that will have to be cleared beyond shadow of doubt is the charge by the House un-American activities committee that there has been infiltration of communist influence into various Protestant religious groups in this country—with specific reference to several organizations and individuals.

There is a chance, of course, that some extremes of pacifism, with preachment of ideals that disregard realities, may be mistaken for support of alien doctrines, but that an actual show of preference for Russian communism should taint the teachings of any of the many religions represented in this country is beyond belief.

It is announced that the House un-American activities committee has issued a pamphlet entitled, "100 Things You Should Know About Communism and Religion," in which it makes reference to various publications purporting to speak for one or another church or associated organization.

The pamphlet points out, as is already well known, that "communists would stamp out religion if they came into power here," and that they "mark down religion as No. 1 enemy."

Whether or not there is any truth in these charges, the fact that they come from such a high source seems to require attention by responsible spokesmen for the churches and publications upon which suspicion of communistic indoctrination is thrown, and that assurance be given of strong opposition to any such un-American and un-religious propagandizing as is charged.

John Nance Garner Puts It Briefly

REMEMBER John Nance Garner? Well, anyhow, he was vice president during the first couple of terms of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, but has been in retirement in recent years down in Uvalde, Tex.

Yesterday was his eightieth birthday anniversary and he observed it by NOT issuing a statement, as requested by interviewers. His idea is that there have been "too many statements by too many people," and he expresses himself "in favor of every man reaching his own conclusions and his own confusions."

Now, within reason, that's an idea. Considering the avalanche of books, magazine and newspaper articles and speeches that have swept the country in recent years, it may well be concluded that Mr. Garner "has something" when he contends that "too many statements have been made by too many people."

To Consider Air Force Academy

A PROPOSAL to establish an Air Force academy will be presented to Congress in the coming session. Aim of the sponsors is to provide for the training of air officers in a university ranking with the military academy at West Point and naval academy at Annapolis.

The secretary of defense and some of his advisers lack enthusiasm for the proposal. They believe it would be better for service unity to draw officers from the two existing academies for the Air Force, and that procedure has been authorized for the present. They have also advocated, to promote understanding and reduce rivalry among the services, that candidates for Army commissions should spend their first two years at the naval academy and vice versa.

The ideal arrangement might be a combination of these proposals. An academy could be created for the Air Force, and then a system set up under which every cadet and midshipman would spend a year at each of the other two schools before entering his own academy for the final two years. This might produce, in a generation or two, corps of officers who would have a thorough understanding of all the services and would think in terms of joint operations.

It is being said of newly-elected Senator Hunt, of Wyoming—a former dentist—that he is already making a good impression.

Who Is Best Able to Keep That Up Indefinitely?

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Promises Easily Made, Not Easily Kept

A WISE member of the Senate, commenting on the problem now faced by President Truman, tells the story of the amateur naturalist and the bear.

The man, on an automobile tour of Glacier Park, was attracted by the amiable-looking begging bears. Ignoring the warnings copiously spread by the government, he left his automobile and approached a bear with an offering of peanuts.

When the peanuts were half gone, the dread realization came over him of what would happen when the peanuts were all eaten. There is no record of the ultimate fate of the kind-hearted man.

First, the President will face office-seekers, still hungry after a 16 years' feast. Chairman McGrath has already suggested the ripping apart of the La Follette-Monroney reorganization plan for Congress.

A Republican "permanent" staff of experts will be replaced by Democrats. The executive departments will be purged of all and sundry removable officials who were not too helpful in the great victory.

Consumers have been promised lower prices by the simple device of price control. The department of agriculture is already fearfully worried about the "40-cent beef" which was mentioned in campaign oratory. The Council of Economic Advisers must now provide the President with a plan of controls which will not lower farm prices. Presumably, if the council fails to produce this miracle, there will be another council of advisers.

* * *

Must Face Realities.

LEFT-WING Truman advisers are all for a fourth round of wage increases. So, of course, are the labor leaders who mustered so many votes in the cities. The hard reality here is that in order to get inflation controls, there must be continuing inflation.

Rent controls which will really stop rent increases have been promised.

A revival of the excess profits tax has been promised. However, if the budget picture is fairly bright early in the year, it will be hard to get tax increases through this Congress. The administration, in order to get excess profits taxes, must somehow create a deficit.

Rationing has been promised, but nature is creating surpluses. Moreover, no rationing machinery, even for still scarce commodities, can be set up in less than five or six months. Here again is a race between political promises and intentions and the law of supply and demand.

There is also a law of human self-preservation to be conquered. If rationing is started, hoarding will take place, and the hoarders always beat the government in such a contest.

The control of surpluses by increasing E. R. P. shipment is running into snags. European production is increasing, partly because of American gifts and loans. An E. R. P. properly administered should ultimately eliminate itself. But this would deny the administration its best means of pleasing selfish interests at home. Scandinavians are already complaining that E. R. P. is pushing European countries into planned economics.

Another morsel of bear-food is the Taft-Hartley Act. But outright repeal of this legislation would take from the government powers it has already used successfully on several occasions. The administration can hardly contemplate with any pleasure another battle with John Lewis without the big stick it has promised to destroy.

Perhaps in the long run the race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong.

Washington Calling

Wallace Flickers Out

By MARQUIS CHILDS

EVER since the election Henry Wallace and the communists have been trying to explain away the pathetically small vote for the Wallace party. While the official total is not in, it is not likely to be much larger than the unofficial returns of little more than a million votes.

The alibis have an empty sound The failure cannot be explained away either by Wallace rhetoric or the gobbledygook of the Communist party.

Rejecting all forms of isolationism, the voters emphatically said "no" to Wallace's charge that the Marshall Plan is a device of Wall Street to involve the United States in a war with Russia.

To suggest, as Wallace has done, that the "red smear" contributed to the outcome is to evade the issue which is what the third party candidate did throughout his campaign.

Facts spoke louder than words as it became more and more apparent that Wallace was following every twist and turn of the Moscow line.

In the light of the outcome, the Wallaceites can take little comfort in denouncing the "capitalist press." The Wallace campaign was fairly extensively reported and, with conspicuous exceptions, this was as objective as the reporting of the major party campaigns.

To blame the poor showing on the "capitalist press" is to ignore previous denunciations of that press as impotent and discredited. It also conveniently ignores the fact that attacks in the press and on the radio directed against President Truman were sometimes as virulent and as distorted as those aimed at Wallace. Newspapers with an estimated 80 per cent of all readers favored the election of Governor Dewey over Mr. Truman.

* * *

Similarity Noticed

VERY much the same preponderance of press support was given to FDR's Republican opponent in 1936 and 1940. The newspaper backing for Roosevelt, as war leader, was somewhat greater in '44. Quite clearly the press does not sway any great mass of voters.

Over and over again during the campaign Wallace demonstrated his political ineptitude. Seldom has any man in American political history been so ill equipped for the rough and tumble of campaigning.

Besides his impassioned and often windy rhetoric, summoned up in response to crowd applause, he brought to the contest little more than a grim and dogged persistence.

All this makes the big talk about the future of the Wallace party sound like just what it is—empty bombast. It is hard to see how Wallace, who is 60 years old, can be revived for any political purpose.

The major claim to come out of the Wallace post-mortem in Chicago was that the third party forced Truman in his campaign to move left. Since that is not susceptible to any measurement (certainly not by polls), it will be argued for a long time to come.

The Wallaceites, in my opinion, can make out a fairly good case. One of the objectives of the Truman strategists was to recapture as much of the Wallace vote as possible by a strong new deal line.

On the other hand, if the President really wanted to win re-election, he had no alternative but to take the liberal-labor side regardless of whether there had been a third party in the field. He had to win the support of organized labor and organized farmers and he did it by promising all that the New Deal had promised.

Timely Editorial

Agreements Honored.

In upholding the action of Congress which canceled claims for untold millions in retroactive "portal-to-portal" pay, the Supreme Court bolstered the concepts of confidence and good faith which facilitates all our business dealings.

The law, which the Supreme Court upheld by refusing to review, said that claims for pay for time spent changing clothes or otherwise preparing for work were not valid unless the claim were based upon contracts, or recognized tradition or practice in the plant or industry.

Sharp CIO lawyers saw the opportunity for such claims after a 1946 interpretation of the wage-hour law. The AFL leaders who refused to join the gravy parade are now in the fortunate position of having refused an unwarranted profit—at no cost to their members.—Akron Beacon Journal.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Control of Europe Hinges on the Ruhr

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — On March 7, 1936, Hitler's small, newly organized army marched into the vital Ruhr, publicly thumbing its nose at the giant but motionless French army.

All that day the French cabinet met, debated, hesitated, finally did nothing. One reason they did nothing was their ally across the English Channel. London refused to back France up.

This failure to act, with its loss of the Ruhr, was the crucial turning point leading up to World War II. After March 7, 1936, it was only a matter of time.

For after that Hitler had the giant coke, coal, iron, steel and chemical industries of the Ruhr. After that he could leap ahead in the armament race. With the Ruhr in his hands no other European country could catch up with him.

That is why France today is more aroused than at any time since she was overrun by German troops, why Charles de Gaulle has threatened to kick out the Marshall Plan, why President Auriol of France has pleaded with the USA, why French communists have jeered at the USA as the German-loving enemy of France.

For handing the Ruhr back to the German cartels means just one thing to the French — the turning point toward another war. For whoever controls the Ruhr controls Europe.

* * *

U. S. Bankers Pour.

DURING the years between the end of World War I and 1933 when Hitler came to power, the banking firm of Brown Brothers, Harriman dumped around one billion dollars of American investors' money into Germany, much of it to the Ruhr. Simultaneously, the banking firm of Dillon, Read dumped several hundred millions —much of it also into the Ruhr.

In 1933, the Harriman banking firm retained John Foster Dulles to go to Berlin and persuade the Reichsbank not to default on its interest. Dulles in 1926 had assailed the state department for its policy of putting a damper on loans to Germany. The state department had warned that U. S. loans were helping rearmament.

But Dulles advised the American public to invest in European securities and kept repeating this advice even when it was all too apparent that German bonds weren't worth the paper they were printed on.

Today Mr. Dulles is head of the am[illegible]ation to the United Nations and a top adviser to [illegible] Truman administration.

Today, the former head of Dillon, Read, James V. Forrestal, is secretary of national defense, while his old banking partner, William H. Draper, is undersecretary of the army.

Today, Averell Harriman of the Harriman banking firm which poured money into Germany, is U. S. ambassador under the Marshall Plan, while another Harriman banking partner, Robert Lovett, is undersecretary of state.

These are the gentlemen who loaned the money to build up the Ruhr between World Wars I and II. These are also the gentlemen who have now decided that the Ruhr shall go back to the big German cartels.

Note—Having been wrong so tragically once, the French figure these banker-statesmen can be wrong again. If they are wrong, it is the French who will have to pay the penalty.

* * *

Cooperative Rule of Ruhr.

TO UNDERSTAND the importance of the Ruhr, you have to understand what would happen if a slice of the USA from Pittsburgh to Cleveland to Wheeling, W. Va., were carved out of our economy. Removal of the great blast furnaces and rolling mills in this area would paralyze the auto industry, the construction industry, farm machinery, machine tools. Almost every industry would come to a halt.

Likewise, France, Italy, Belgium, most of Europe are partly dependent on Ruhr coal, coke or steel. The consumers are even more concerned than the producers. To them the Ruhr is vital for two reasons:

1. To make sure it doesn't become another arsenal for war.
2. To make sure its raw materials continue to build up a peaceful Europe.

To that end, it is being proposed by some Washington advisers that Ruhr factories be managed not by the German cartels, but by neutral cooperatives.

The Swedes, Norwegians, Swiss, Dutch, Belgians are trusted in Europe because they are small and don't want war. If war comes they have most to lose. Their stake in peace is tremendous.

If a cooperative to operate the Ruhr was formed and these smaller, neutral countries given a dominant part in the management, French fears would cease. Furthermore, the Germans could not object. French, British, American and even German representatives could sit in on the management, but the small neutrals would hold the balance of power.

* * *

Consumers Have Interest.

THE principle of a cooperative is that the consumer is just as important as the producer. If the cooperative makes more money, the consumer gets a dividend. He shares in the management.

Ruhr industry is so important to the consumer nations of Europe that they deserve a voice in its control. Furthermore, their control will give the best quietus to French fears, the best safeguards for future peace.

Not even the Russians could successfully object to such a solution.

Today, the Scandinavian countries operate highly efficient and successful cooperatives. So do the British. If the economic heart of Europe is left to the handling of the same American bankers—the Forrestals, the Dulleses and the Harrimans — who helped rejuvenate Germany after World War I, then you can write it down that World War III is just around the corner.

However, the only way to make international cooperation work is to try it, not talk about it. And the Ruhr is the all-important place to begin. If we don't begin with cooperative control of the Ruhr now, then we can get ready to fight to take it back from Russian-Nazi cartels later.

Assignment: America

Lobbyists In Hot Water

By KENNETH L. DIXON

WASHINGTON—If present developments continue toward their seemingly natural conclusion, life is going to be somewhat tough on the lobbyists during the 81st Congress.

Typical of the trend was the release, during the week-end, of a resolution slated for passage by the International Association of Machinists, meeting here in regular session.

Boiled down to a few words, the resolution urged "a searching investigation" of lobbying activities in Washington by a joint committee of the 81st Congress."

It was the latest of a dozen or so such requests, including several which never were officially announced but which went by word-of-mouth to the President and to ranking members of the new Congress.

Regardless of what comes of it, the reasons behind this anti-lobby trend are fairly obvious.

For one thing, it is generally agreed on Capitol Hill that the Lafollette-Monroney congressional reorganization measure, one segment of which was aimed specifically at the pressure groups, only partially smoked the lobbyists out of their holes.

True, it required them to register as lobbyists, under penalty of possible fine and imprisonment if they failed to comply. Enough of them compiled, with names and salaries, to result in a survey showing that approximately 12 million dollars was being spent legally in efforts to influence the 80th Congress. (And note that word "legally.")

In addition, correspondents (including this one) who spent days going through the endless affidavits filed by those lobbyists who did register soon discovered that something very, very phoney was going on.

It was something extremely difficult to put one's finger on, but it boiled down to this: Countless long-accepted lobbyists around town simply had not registered, but nevertheless still were doing business in the same old manner.

* * *

Found the Loopholes.

INVESTIGATION into the situation disclosed—to the satisfaction of most correspondents—that the lobbyist-registration act was filled with loopholes, and the veteran pressure operators merely were taking advantage of them.

Existence of stringent libel laws, plus the fact that most of such canny characters actually were committing no crime in the letter of the law, prohibited the publishing of such information, other than in the most vague and general manner.

Just the same, rather than being decimated by a law aimed at curtailing their activities, the lobbyists actually multiplied during the 80th Congress. And the amount of money spent for the support or defeat of various measures unquestionably ran into many hundreds of millions of dollars—although only a small percentage of that wended its way to Washington and Capitol Hill.

(Example: Whether you approve it or not, unrefuted charges still stand in the congressional record carrying the accusation that more than one hundred million dollars was spent to insure passage of the Taft-Hartley bill. Additional note: Also unrefuted are charges that nearly that much was spent trying to defeat the bill!)

Unofficially, that sort of thing was pretty generally conceded to be true throughout the 80th Congress. But, at the time, there was little inclination to do anything about it—for obvious reasons.

Now, however, things are different. All those who saw legislation passed which they did not like during the last session are out with their little hatchets to get at the pressure groups behind such passage. The fact that congressional control has shifted only pours oil on the fire, so to speak.

At the moment, everybody's sore at the lobbyists—including a lot of completely honest legislators who never took a dime in funds or favors but who did make the mistake of listening too long to the pressure-group spokesmen, only to learn on election day that they'd told him wrong about what the people wanted.

Farmer's Diary

Meandering Marsupial

By CALVIN A. BYERS

I WAS walking along the lower edge of the east orchard on a cold wet morning, when an opossum came out of some sassafras sprouts and moved parallel to my path. He looked over his shoulder at me, and as if to say, "What a day!" Then he went on his way.

Through wet grass, over stones, climbing across all obstacles, he made slow progress. His gray-white fur coat appeared thin. When I came too close he hissed and grinned broadly, and I saw him shiver, for the wind was cold. I never had seen a wild animal appear quite so miserable. But he kept on up the slope. I followed at a distance.

There was purpose in his movement. To see what he had in mind I followed into the thicket, going directly toward a tall chestnut stump. I saw his long bare tail go into a hole beneath a root.

When I thrust in an exploring hand, it fell upon the plump rear quarters and I felt the soft cushion of fat beneath the pelt. The top of the stump, I saw, was deeply weathered, and had a hole about five inches in diameter. The odor coming from the depths was like that of a poultry crate. Short brown feathers were caught in a crevice of the wood.

With a sudden strong tug, I pulled Brer Possum out into the light. He lay, as though dead, his lips drawn back to show his gleaming teeth. I pushed him aside with my foot and reached in again full length. I felt the feathers of a bird. A muffled hissing sound came back.

More in earnest, I grabbed the bird by one wing and pulled out a blinking screech owl. Surprised and angered by my intrusion he pecked fiercely at the ravellings of my coat and held on. I set him on the edge of the stump and reached in a third time.

I found yet another owl. Both must have been almost on the 'possum's back. No doubt he would have enjoyed a feast just a little later—involuntarily I looked where I had laid him. He, of course, was gone. While my back was turned, he had made good his escape. The two birds on the stump were scrooged together, silent. I rather enjoyed pushing them back into the hole where they belonged.

It was too chill a day for anyone to enjoy being out, I, too, went home.

Official Ohio Tally Gives Truman 7,107 Vote Plurality

COLUMBUS—(INS)—Official returns from the Nov. 2 election showed yesterday that President Truman carried Ohio by a plurality of only 7,107 votes over New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the unsuccessful Republican nominee.

The official count as announced by the secretary of state showed President Truman received 1,452,791 votes to Dewey's 1,445,684. The highest of the electors pledged to third-party candidate Henry A. Wallace received 37,596.

Wallace's name did not appear on the Ohio ballot, but those of his 25 electors did as independent candidates.

The total number of persons voting in the Buckeye state was set at 3,138,724, far below the expected turnout.

Frank J. Lausche, former governor and the Democratic candidate for that post again, won election by a 221-261-vote margin over Republican incumbent Thomas J. Herbert. The final official count gave Lausche, 1,619,775, Herbert 1,398,514.

Other official results:

Lieutenant Governor — George D. Nye (D) 1,474,959; Paul M. Herbert (R-I) 1,354,579. Nye's plurality 120,380.

Secretary of State—Charles F. Sweeney (D) 1,501,305; Edward J. Hummel (R-I) 1,310,704. Sweeney's plurality 190,601.

YOUR HOLIDAY BIRD

Whether you choose chicken, turkey or duck for your big dinner, you can use one of these recipes to fill your holiday fowl with a delicious stuffing.

The bright red of cranberry stuffing makes it pretty as well as tasty, says Better Homes and Gardens magazine. The ingredients are one cup of fresh cranberries, one-fourth cup sugar, one-fourth cup melted butter or fortified margarine and four cups of dry bread crumbs. You'll also need one teaspoon of salt, one-fourth teaspoon of cinnamon, two teaspoons of grated lemon peel and one-half cup of water or stock. Chop the cranberries and stir in the sugar. Combine the butter and bread crumbs. Add the cranberries and remaining ingredients. Mix lightly. This amount will stuff one duck or roasting chicken of from five and a half to six pounds, dressed weight.

RETURNS FROM CLEVELAND

CRESTLINE—Mrs. Edna Nelson has returned home after spending several days in Cleveland.

HOROSCOPE

For Wednesday, November 24

IT is probable that a greatly accelerated urge in the direction of pleasure, celebrations, adventures involving gayety, moving about, visiting, or perhaps more practical ambitions or desires, are likely to be blocked, postponed or in some manner have the keen edges dulled. It might be owing to opposition from elders, from health conditions, or to wise decisions after sober reflection.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is face a year of ambitious plans and desires, with much of a promising nature for fulfilled hopes and objectives encouraged by stimulated ambitions, pleasant and favorable circumstances. Still there are adverse situations to be coped with. It might be a matter of physical health, the lack of support from elders or superiors, or other untoward circumstance. The spirits are generous and free, so there may be personal compensations for disappointments or obstructions.

A child born on this day, while ambitions, eager and skillful in developing its plans and adventures, yet may encounter obstacles, impediments and difficulties in its more serious objectives.

PIN-WORM MYSTERY ENDED

Pin-Worms have been causing trouble for centuries, and millions of victims have desperately sought a way to deal with this pest that lives inside the human body.

Science has at last solved the problem! It is now also known that Pin-Worm infection spreads rapidly and can cause real distress if neglected. So beware of that aggravating rectal itch, and act fast. Ask your druggist for JAYNE'S P-W at the first sign of Pin-Worms. P-W is a medically sound treatment based on an officially approved drug principle. The easy-to-take P-W tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms easily and safely.

It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!

Morale Higher In West Europe

ECA Official Sees More Food In Europe

BY DR. D. A. FITZGERALD..*

(Director, Food and Agriculture Division Economic Cooperation Administration)

WASHINGTON, — (INS) — During my recent three weeks stay in Europe I was able to observe a substantial improvement in the the morale of the people. Generally speaking, western Europe has a better level of food consumption. Indeed, the overall economic situation in many western European countries is much better than it was a year ago.

To set the economic picture in proper focus, I am compelled to add that there are some exceptions. But on the whole the perspective, as I found it, was decidely encouraging.

The United Kingdom, for example, has nearly halved its net deficit on current account from last year's two and a half billion dollars. How was this gargantuan task accomplished?

It was done, on the one hand, by increasing exports—one of the basic axioms for achieving economic health—and on the other by curtailing imports.

All the British industrial targets are being met substantially, or even exceeded, with the exception of textiles.

Obviously, one of the more difficult situations with which France has to contend is the communist-led strike in the French coal mines which is seriously interfering with France's recovery program.

Here, again, the French government has taken strong measures to offset the communist tactics, although the losses to the economy are considerable. There may have to be some cut in food imports as a result, since France may have to use more dollars to buy coal.

In Bizonia, Germany, the German authorities guaranteed price for German potatoes that proved very effective, in combination with good growing conditions, in raising potato production up to about twenty million tons—roughly 750 million bushels. This compares with U. S. production this year of 418 million bushels.

Consequently potatoes—Astaple in the German diet—have been derationed.

The entire western European potato crop, moreover, was about 50 percent larger than last year and exceeds the prewar crop.

Among other helpful developments are large vegetable crops and excellent pasture conditions. This means from 5 to 25 per cent more milk above the very low mark of the previous winter and summer.

Production of livesto: products remians at about 60 or 70 percent prewar. In the major livestock countries — the United Kingdom, Holland and Denmark — there are prospects for substantial increases for next spring's pig crop.

Concerning 1949-50 wheat exports from the U. S., I believe that it is likely to be relatively large, if the domestic supply permits.

Despite the large crop in Europe, this year, imports from all sources into western Europe will be within two million tons of last year's large figure and about the same amount larger than prewar.

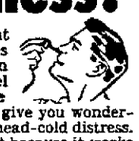
Do This for Head-Cold Stuffiness!



Instantly—the moment you put a few drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol in each nostril—you'll feel your cold-stuffed nose start to open up and give you wonderful relief from sniffy head-cold distress. Va-tro-nol acts so fast because it works right where trouble is. It relieves stuffy congestion, and makes breathing easier. If used in time, Va-tro-nol helps prevent many colds from developing! Try it! Vicks Va-tro-nol Nose Drops.

How Dr. Edwards' Helps Folks Who Are Constipated

For over 40 years, Dr. F. M. Edwards, a noted Ohio Doctor, successfully relieved patients bothered by constipation and its headaches, lack of pep, dull eyes, sallow skin, with his famous Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

Olive Tablets are purely vegetable. They work gently but oh—so thoroughly! Olive Tablets pep up a sluggish intestinal tract. They act on BOTH upper and lower bowels. Just see if Olive Tablets don't give you the most comfortable, satisfactory, more natural-like bowel movements you've ever had! No griping.

Buy Olive Tablets today. At all drugstores. Only 15¢, 30¢. —Adv.

32 Million Birds Ready for Market

MANSFIELD NEWS-JOURNAL

Journalist Sums Up Blessings, Declares U. S. 'Pretty Well Off'

NEW YORK—(AP)—There are many things to be grateful for this Thanksgiving, not including the price of turkey.

For example, everybody can still afford a cranberry.

So let the cost of the drumstick soar. It'll take more than that to turn the 1948 Thanksgiving into a turkey. We can always give the traditional bird a traditional bird—and pick something besides pinfeathers out of our teeth.

Forget the turkey. Let's count a few real blessings to be thankful for:

The election is over, and it is now possible to turn on a radio without hearing a politician running for office on his vocal chords.

The longshoremen's strike tied up scores of vessels, but the ship of state is still rocking along on an even keel.

Congress is out of session.

The new look isn't getting any longer.

Nobody has started a post-season football contest called "the soup bowl."

More stores are stocking two-pants suits.

It has been weeks since anybody was bitten by a mad English Sparrow or struck by lightning in a barroom.

The goose hangs high in the land. Everybody is working, going to college, or waiting for the Army to call him up and end his housing problem.

The hay fever season is over and the real pneumonia weather hasn't set in.

The business depression predicted for 1949 hasn't arrived. The financial Cassandras who forcast it have joined the political pollsters on the mourner's bench—or else are taking lessons in astrology.

The ghost is still walking every payday. Most bosses are meeting their payrolls on time, including the biggest of all—the government. It sends checks now to about one out of every six families.

Television programs are better. Some nights not a single wrestling match shows on the screen.

Lumber is getting plentiful. Soon a man will be able to afford to be buried in a pine coffin again.

The landlord has had a big dent in his hopes to jack up rents.

So many mofor cars are being turned out that by 1951 everybody who can't afford a car will be able to buy one anyway.

Russia hasn't taken another European country all year.

People aren't telling as many shaggy dog and talking horse stories as they were last Thanksgiving.

Lana Turner has quit wearing sweaters.

The U. S. army, three years after the war, has a new medium tank in the field equal to anything the Germans had in 1939. American combat veterans would have been even more thankful if they had a tank like that in the Battle of the Bulge.

At long last an etiquette book now says men don't have to take off their hats in office elevators when a woman enters.

Pretzels are in good supply.

The United Nations delegates are still arguing about atom bombs—instead of throwing them.

Yes, all in all, there's a lot to be thankful for. Everybody working, loving and living—in a land at peace.

Of course, there's a dark side of the picture. Uncle Sam owes $250,000,000,000, which is $1,731 apiece for every man, woman and child. But you know relatives—they're always in debt.

Why worry? We're better off than the Pilgrims, who borrowed this country from the Indians and never paid it back. Never mind the turkey. Pass the cranberries. I think I've got room for one more.

It's a Four Star Show!

Kroesen to MC Grid Banquet

The 13th annual News-Journal football banquet was rapidly approaching the position today where it could command a "four-star" billing from entertainment critics.

Selection of Richard L. "Dick" Kroesen, glib Clevelander, as toastmaster today completed the major speaker's roster. Kroesen joins such persons as Tug Wilson, Big Nine athletic commissioner; Dave Templeton, 1948 Ohio State football captain and Jeff DeHaven, former Madison coach on the guest speaker's list.

But talk isn't all that will be on the program honoring the high school football teams of Mansfield Senior and Madison high schools next Monday at Richland Recreation. Officials promise many entertainment features—several will be announced in the News-Journal and others will fall into the surprise category.

The players themselves will come in for a harvest of gold. Graduating seniors on each team will get gold footballs from Sam Fox, Mansfield jeweler; "Best Lineman" on each squad will get a trophy from the Phi Sigma Chi fraternity and the N-J will present "Most Valuable Player" trophies to a member of each team.

A spurt of ticket sales yesterday prompted banquet officials to put a deadline on the purchase of ducats for the fete. The News-Journal ticket office will close at 5 p. m. Friday while the ticket booths at the two high schools will wrap up business tomorrow afternoon.

The price of admission for the dinner and entertainment is $2.50 per person. Serving of the meal is scheduled to begin at 6:45 p. m with the entertainment coming at 7:30.

A 10-man committee yesterday whipped together a tentative program which rates right at the top of the banquet heap. But all 10 men had "no comment" today about the special features which will go into the show.

'DICK' KROESEN . . . Grid Show MC

Included on the program committee were:: Fred Tharp, Ralph Disler, Augie Morningstar, Ennis Walker, J. Gilbert Baird, John Schroeder, Phil Hergatt, Pat Malone, Ken Woodman, and Fox.

Tickets or reservations may be made with any of the above persons before the Friday deadline or purchased from Pete Zeides, Westinghouse, and Bill Daugherty, Tappan Stove.

Kroesen is president of the Cleveland Sporting Goods company and an ardent follower of all sports. He has served as referee for the famed Mansfield Relays since the early 1930's. Many of the Relays' innovations were put into effect by the Cleveland man who calls the Mansfield track event "the greatest amateur show in the world."

He has been state chairman of the March of Dimes for six years and is Cuyahoga county chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Kroesen is a past commander of the Cuyahoga county American Legion and a past president of the National Sporting Goods association.

Another $700 was transferred from the contingencies fund to the compensation of employes fund.

Transfers for the engineering department included $600 from contingencies fund to materials for county ditch work, and $350 from the auto and instrument fund to stationery and supplies.

DAD, TOO—

Mansfield children aren't the only ones who are looking forward to the day when Santa Claus brings those new mechanical toys. A Mansfield father obviously plans to enjoy at least one of his son's Christmas gifts. He stopped at a toy department counter yesterday to ask the clerk about the latest equipment for electric trains. "I'm going to get my son's train fixed up so we can really have fun with it this year," he explained.

★

LIKE HOME—

Lisa Parnova, who portrays Little Red Riding Hood in the annual Edwin Strawbridge production here, has a personal reason for enjoying her role in the fairy story. She has a four-year-old son at home in New York, who gets a chance to see his mother play in his favorite tales during the holidays in New York City. Miss Parnova, widow of a World war veteran who died several years ago, is back again this year with Strawbridge after touring the country for several years with her own troupe. From Mansfield the cast expects to go to Columbus where they will present the exquisite "The Snow Maiden," a more adult, more serious play. Parent-Teacher associations or Junior Leagues sponsor the various performances.

Youth Wins Leniency

A 14-year-old youth who confessed to taking a motor bicycle belonging to Douglas Hazen, Nov. 19, was put on one year's probation today by Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer. He was ordered to report to Juvenile court each Saturday.

Judge Cramer dismissed charges against a 17-year-old youth, accused of being associated in the theft. The court found that the 17-year-old had been given a "lift" by the other youth and did not know the motor bicycle had been stolen.

A 17-year-old youth who confessed to assault and battery of a 16-year-old youth was warned by the court and ordered to pay hospital and doctor bills in the amount of $30 within 30 days. The costs had come to $60.

Charles R. Carrick, 16, of Lucas, R. D. 1, was in juvenile court on charges of operating a motor vehicle on a temporary permit unaccompanied by a licensed driver, and unlawfully displaying a dealer's license.

His permit was revoked and his right to apply for another one suspended for 30 days.

Turkeys 'Whiter' Is Claim

Price In City Varies In Size

(By International News Service)

The nation's housewives had some consolation today for the increased price of turkeys and the fact that turkeys are scarcer than they were last Thanksgiving.

Poultry industry spokesmen say the quality of the turkeys now on the market is better than ever before—and there is more white meat on them.

This year's crop is approximately 32 million birds, with 62 per cent of them expected to be marketed by or for Thanksgiving. Another 30 per cent will be Christmas turkeys and the remaining 8 per cent will go on the table in January or later.

This year's crop is slightly less than one turkey per family.

In Mansfield prices range from 73 to 85 cents a pound on large and small birds.

In Chicago, turkey prices are up only slightly over last year. Top prices were listed at 90 cents a pound for oven-ready hen turkeys and graduated down to 60 cents a pound for a 22-to-25 pound tom.

Last year's prices in Chicago were only a few cents lower.

In Kansas City, turkeys were up five cents a pound and Cleveland meat dealers reported price increases of from 10 to 15 cents a pound over last year. The average retail price for a turkey in Cleveland is $12 to $15 per bird.

In Indianapolis 87 cents a pound was reported the top price for the festive fowl, but chickens are listed at 65 to 69 cents a pound. Some small Indianapolis groceries will not even carry turkeys this year.

In New England, turkeys are selling generally between 75 and 90 cents a pound. This is a slight increase of 1947 prices.

In New York, the larger turkeys sell for 69 to 79 cents a pound while smaller birds cost 65 to 75 cents. Philadelphia dealers list slightly lower prices—59 to 80 cents a pound.

In Atlanta, Ga., 20 per cent of the grocers reported they would not stock turkeys unless by specific request. Turkey prices are nearly 30 per cent higher in Atlanta than last year.

The other 80 per cent of Atlanta dealers will sell dressed turkeys at 87 to 92 cents a pound, the highest prices in the nation.

In Dallas, Texas, a 20 per cent increase over last year was reported with tom turkeys selling at 69 cents a pound and hens at 79 cents.

Washington, D. C., poultry dealers listed "oven-ready" turkeys at 89 cents a pound with the price "subject to change." This is about 20 cents higher than last year.

John Bonner Rites Friday

Funeral services for John Bonner, 48, of 102 Oak street, will be held at the Geiger funeral home at 2 p. m. Friday. Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

Mr. Bonner died at the Richland County Tuberculosis sanatorium Sunday after an illness of eight months.

He was born in Clannan, Ark., Sept. 6, 1900, and came to Mansfield 15 year sago. He was a former employe of the Humphryes Manufacturing company.

Surviving are his wife, Josephine; three sons, John Lewis, Glenn and William Clarence; and two daughters, Peggy Joyce and Betty, all of Mansfield; and his mother, Mrs. Betty Huston of Johnson City, Tenn.

Friends may call at the funeral home until time of services which will be in charge of E. N. Callicoat.

Class Sponsors Square Dance

Students of the 1949 graduating class at Senior high school will sponsor a square dance Saturday night, Tom Swisher, president, said today.

The dance will be held in the school gymnasium with the "Sunshine Valley Boys" playing for the dance and John Jones, one of the janitors at Senior high, doing the calling.

The dance will be open to the public and will be for couples only, Swisher said.

YMCA Program Aids Boys In School Only a Half Day

A special YMCA program to keep schoolboys off the street was launched yesterday afternoon.

It was the first in a series of daily activity periods designed to interest boys who go to school only a half day because of crowded classes.

Yesterday's program was initiated by John Watkins, "Y" staff member, in cooperation with W. W. Blauser, principal of West Fifth street school. Because of crowded conditions, West Fifth street school operates on a double shift with some children attending in the morning and others attending in the afternoon.

Thirty-five boys from the school participated in the program which included games, gymnastic activities, tumbling and swimming. The supervised activities lasted from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m.

Morning programs are being planned for boys who attend school in the afternoon. The project was started by the YMCA after concern was felt for the possible increase in juvenile delinquency due to the lack of supervision during the long periods boys are out of school.

All boys are welcome to participate in the programs, whether or not they are YMCA members, "Y" officials said.

32 Million Birds Ready for Market

MANSFIELD NEWS-JOURNAL
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1948 PAGE ELEVEN

Hal Boyle

Journalist Sums Up Blessings, Declares U. S. 'Pretty Well Off'

NEW YORK—(AP)—There are many things to be grateful for this Thanksgiving, not including the price of turkey.

For example, everybody can still afford a cranberry.

So let the cost of the drumstick soar. It'll take more than that to turn the 1948 Thanksgiving into a turkey. We can always give the traditional bird a traditional bird—and pick something besides pinfeathers out of our teeth.

Forget the turkey. Let's count a few real blessings to be thankful for:

The election is over, and it is now possible to turn on a radio without hearing a politician running for office on his vocal chords.

The longshoremen's strike tied up scores of vessels, but the ship of state is still rocking along on an even keel.

Congress is out of session.

The new look isn't getting any longer.

Nobody has started a post-season football contest called "the soup bowl."

More stores are stocking two-pants suits.

It has been weeks since anybody was bitten by a mad English Sparrow or struck by lightning in a barroom.

The goose hangs high in the land. Everybody is working, going to college, or waiting for the Army to call him up and end his housing problem.

The hay fever season is over and the real pneumonia weather hasn't set in.

The business depression predicted for 1949 hasn't arrived. The financial Cassandras who forcast it have joined the political pollsters on the mourner's bench—or else are taking lessons in astrology.

The ghost is still walking every payday. Most bosses are meeting their payrolls on time, including the biggest of all—the government. It sends checks now to about one out of every six families.

Television programs are better. Some nights not a single wrestling match shows on the screen.

Lumber is getting plentiful. Soon a man will be able to afford to be buried in a pine coffin again.

The landlord has had a big dent in his hopes to jack up rents.

So many motor cars are being turned out that by 1951 everybody who can't afford a car will be able to buy one anyway.

Russia hasn't taken another European country all year.

People aren't telling as many shaggy dog and talking horse stories as they were last Thanksgiving.

Lana Turner has quit wearing sweaters.

The U. S. army, three years after the war, has a new medium tank in the field equal to anything the Germans had in 1939. American combat veterans would have been even more thankful if they had a tank like that in the Battle of the Bulge.

At long last an etiquette book now says men don't have to take off their hats in office elevators when a woman enters.

Pretzels are in good supply.

The United Nations delegates are still arguing about atom bombs—instead of throwing them.

Yes, all in all, there's a lot to be thankful for. Everybody working, loving and living—in a land at peace.

Of course, there's a dark side of the picture. Uncle Sam owes $250,000,000,000, which is $1,731 apiece for every man, woman and child. But you know relatives—they're always in debt.

Why worry? We're better off than the Pilgrims, who borrowed this country from the Indians and never paid it back. Never mind the turkey. Pass the cranberries. I think I've got room for one more.

The South Boulevards Park association adopted drawings and plans for a proposed park pavilion presented by Thomas Zaugg, Mansfield architect, at a meeting at the former Boulevards council house last night.

The association meets every Monday evening at the former boulevards council house.

Fathers Get Probation

Three In Court For Non-Support

Marvin Patrick, of Shiloh, R. D. 2, charged with non-support of one child since Nov. 5, was sentenced to six months in the county jail yesterday afternoon in juvenile court.

The sentence was suspended by Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer, on condition Patrick turn over to his wife his weekly check. She is to keep a record of money received and spent. He had pleaded innocent, but was found guilty.

In another case, Donald Peterson, of 180½ North Main street, charged with non-support of two children from Oct. 25 to Nov. 18, was placed on probation for five years. He pleaded guilty.

He was warned to stay out of places where liquor is sold.

Joe Patrick, of Shiloh, R. D. 2, was held in county jail for juvenile court, on charges of non-support of six children since Oct. 30. The children range in age from two months to 11 years.

Teen-Agers Dance at Park

A Thanksgiving Eve dance for teen-agers at Johns Park pavilion will be held from 8 to 11 p. m. tomorrow, Stanley Kamen, Mansfield recreation department director, said today.

Free to the public, the dance will be held under the direction of Jack Shay, president of the Johns Park Dance club.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Glen Wendland's orchestra in cooperation with Local 159, American Federation of Musicians.

It's a Four Star Show!

Kroesen to MC Grid Banquet

The 13th annual News-Journal football banquet was rapidly approaching the position today where it could command a "four-star" billing from entertainment critics.

Selection of Richard L. "Dick" Kroesen, glib Clevelander, as toastmaster today completed the major speaker's roster. Kroesen joins such persons as Tug Wilson, Big Nine athletic commissioner; Dave Templeton, 1948 Ohio State football captain and Jeff DeHaven, former Madison coach on the guest speaker's list.

But talk isn't all that will be on the program honoring the high school football teams of Mansfield Senior and Madison high schools next Monday at Richland Recreation. Officials promise many entertainment features—several will be announced in the News-Journal and others will fall into the surprise category.

The players themselves will come in for a harvest of gold. Graduating seniors on each team will get gold footballs from Sam Fox, Mansfield jeweler; "Best Lineman" on each squad will get a trophy from the Phi Sigma Chi fraternity and the N-J will present "Most Valuable Player" trophies to a member of each team.

A spurt of ticket sales yesterday prompted banquet officials to put a deadline on the purchase of ducats for the fete. The News-Journal ticket office will close at 5 p. m. Friday while the ticket booths at the two high schools will wrap up business tomorrow afternoon.

The price of admission for the dinner and entertainment is $2.50 per person. Serving of the meal is scheduled to begin at 6:45 p. m with the entertainment coming at 7:30.

A 10-man committee yesterday whipped together a tentative program which rates right at the top of the banquet heap. But all 10 men had "no comment" today about the special features which will go into the show.

'DICK' KROESEN . . . Grid Show MC

Included on the program committee were:: Fred Tharp, Ralph Disler, Augie Morningstar, Ennis Walker, J. Gilbert Baird, John Schroeder, Phil Hergatt, Pat Malone, Ken Woodman, and Fox.

Tickets or reservations may be made with any of the above persons before the Friday deadline or purchased from Pete Zeides, Westinghouse, and Bill Daugherty, Tappan Stove.

Kroesen is president of the Cleveland Sporting Goods company and an ardent follower of all sports. He has served as referee for the famed Mansfield Relays since the early 1930's. Many of the Relays' innovations were put into effect by the Cleveland man who calls the Mansfield track event "the greatest amateur show in the world."

He has been state chairman of the March of Dimes for six years and is Cuyahoga county chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Kroesen is a past commander of the Cuyahoga county American Legion and a past president of the National Sporting Goods association.

County OK's Transfers

Transfer of $4,766 to the stationery and supplies fund of the county board of elections was authorized yesterday by the county commissioners.

The transfers are being made from other funds of the board in order to pay for stationery and supplies used in the election. The money transferred included $1,000 from the "other expenses" fund, $866 from compensation of judges and clerks, $1,400 from salaries of board members, and $2,000 from the county's contingencies fund.

Another $700 was transferred from the contingencies fund to the compensation of employes fund.

Transfers for the engineering department included $600 from contingencies fund to materials for county ditch work, and $350 from the auto and instrument fund to stationery and supplies.

Surviving are three brothers, Sam and Ben Pearce of Mansfield and Dudley of Ashland, and two nephews, John Pearce of Mansfield and Herman Pearce of Cleveland.

Death Takes Mrs. Timmons

Mrs. Harriet Mabel Owens Timmons, 69, wife of James M. Timmons, died at her home, 143 West First street, this morning following a lingering illness.

She was born in Hartford City, Ind., July 26, 1879, and had been a resident of Mansfield for the past 12 years.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, Raymond of Mansfield and Owen of Columbia City, Ind.; three grandchildren, and a great-granddaughter.

The body was removed to the Finefrock funeral home and will be sent to Columbia City, Ind., for services and burial.

McPeek Child Dies at Birth

Ruth Ann McPeek, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dale McPeek of Mansfield, R. D. 4, died at birth at General hospital this morning.

Rev. Charles W. Stoneburner, pastor of the First Methodist church, will conduct services at the Wappner funeral home at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

School Programs Mark Thanksgiving

The Thanksgiving theme will be woven into classroom lessons and special programs tomorrow in Mansfield and Richland county schools.

Schools will close after classes Wednesday for the rest of the week.

Neither Senior high school nor John Simpson will have special assemblies Wednesday but at Senior high, H. D. Bishop, assistant principal, will broadcast a Thanksgiving talk over the public address system to all home and class rooms sometime tomorrow.

At John Simpson, each home room will observe the holiday with programs.

A Thanksgiving assembly for all students at Johnny Appleseed will take place at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday. The program to be presented in the auditorium, will be in charge of Miss Jean Worley, band teacher at the school and general chairman of the holiday program.

Miss Worley will direct a play, "Pink Roses for Thanksgiving," with ninth-grade dramatic pupils in the cast. Shirley Tucker will give the poem, "Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers," followed by "Prayer of Thanksgiving," a Netherlands folk song by the ninth-grade boys' glee club, led by Miss Ellena Percy. They will also sing, "Song of the Open Road" by Ira B. Wilson.

GLEE CLUB SINGS

The ninth-grade girls' glee club will sing, "Song of Peace" from "Finlandia," by Sibelius, and "Tanis Angelicus," by Franck.

The combined glee clubs are to present "For the Beauty of the Earth," by Conrad Kocher, and "Let All Things Now Living," a traditional Welsh melody.

Patricia Sites will give "The Peace Message," a poem. The final number will be three songs by the seventh grad choir led by Mrs. Ralph McGraw. They will include: "Hear Thou Our Prayer," "Thanksgiving Song" and "Land of Our Birth."

The program at Appleseed will be announced by Serle Mitchell, junior high student.

Every elementary school of the city is expected to mention in special song, rhyme or playlet the Thanksgiving theme, but it will be woven into the curriculum as a part of the regular studies. Few schools are having special assemblies.

Dance Scheduled

The Springfield Township Booster club will hold a dance Friday at 8:30 p. m. at the Springfield township high school. There will be round and square dancing. Refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

DAD, TOO—

Mansfield children aren't the only ones who are looking forward to the day when Santa Claus brings those new mechanical toys. A Mansfield father obviously plans to enjoy at least one of his son's Christmas gifts. He stopped at a toy department counter yesterday to ask the clerk about the latest equipment for electric trains. "I'm going to get my son's train fixed up so we can really have fun with it this year," he explained.

★

LIKE HOME—

Lisa Parnova, who portrays Little Red Riding Hood in the annual Edwin Strawbridge production here, has a personal reason for enjoying her role in the fairy story. She has a four-year-old son at home in New York, who gets a chance to see his mother play in his favorite tales during the holidays in New York City. Miss Parnova, widow of a World war veteran who died several years ago, is back again this year with Strawbridge after touring the country for several years with her own troupe. From Mansfield the cast expects to go to Columbus where they will present the exquisite "The Snow Maiden," a more adult, more serious play. Parent-Teacher associations or Junior Leagues sponsor the various performances.

Youth Wins Leniency

A 14-year-old youth who confessed to taking a motor bicycle belonging to Douglas Hazen, Nov. 19, was put on one year's probation today by Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer. He was ordered to report to Juvenile court each Saturday.

Judge Cramer dismissed charges against a 17-year-old youth, accused of being associated in the theft. The court found that the 17-year-old had been given a "lift" by the other youth and did not know the motor bicycle had been stolen.

A 17-year-old youth who confessed to assault and battery of a 16-year-old youth was warned by the court and ordered to pay hospital and doctor bills in the amount of $30 within 30 days. The costs had come to $60.

Charles R. Carrick, 16, of Lucas, R. D. 1, was in juvenile court on charges of operating a motor vehicle on a temporary permit unaccompanied by a licensed driver, and unlawfully displaying a dealer's license.

His permit was revoked and his right to apply for another one suspended for 30 days.

Turkeys 'Whiter' Is Claim

Price In City Varies In Size

(By International News Service)

The nation's housewives had some consolation today for the increased price of turkeys and the fact that turkeys are scarcer than they were last Thanksgiving.

Poultry industry spokesmen say the quality of the turkeys now on the market is better than ever before—and there is more white meat on them.

This year's crop is approximately 32 million birds, with 62 per cent of them expected to be marketed by or for Thanksgiving. Another 30 per cent will be Christmas turkeys and the remaining 8 per cent will go on the table in January or later.

This year's crop is slightly less than one turkey per family.

In Mansfield prices range from 73 to 85 cents a pound on large and small birds.

In Chicago, turkey prices are up only slightly over last year. Top prices were listed at 90 cents a pound for oven-ready hen turkeys and graduated down to 60 cents a pound for a 22-to-25 pound tom.

Last year's prices in Chicago were only a few cents lower.

In Kansas City, turkeys were up five cents a pound and Cleveland meat dealers reported price increases of from 10 to 15 cents a pound over last year. The average retail price for a turkey in Cleveland is $12 to $15 per bird.

In Indianapolis 87 cents a pound was reported the top price for the festive fowl, but chickens are listed at 65 to 69 cents a pound. Some small Indianapolis groceries will not even carry turkeys this year.

In New England, turkeys are selling generally between 75 and 90 cents a pound. This is a slight increase of 1947 prices.

In New York, the larger turkeys sell for 69 to 79 cents a pound while smaller birds cost 65 to 75 cents. Philadelphia dealers list slightly lower prices—59 to 80 cents a pound.

In Atlanta, Ga., 20 per cent of the grocers reported they would not stock turkeys unless by specific request. Turkey prices are nearly 30 per cent higher in Atlanta than last year.

The other 80 per cent of Atlanta dealers will sell dressed turkeys at 87 to 92 cents a pound, the highest prices in the nation.

In Dallas, Texas, a 20 per cent increase over last year was reported with tom turkeys selling at 69 cents a pound and hens at 79 cents.

Washington, D. C., poultry dealers listed "oven-ready" turkeys at 89 cents a pound with the price "subject to change." This is about 20 cents higher than last year.

YMCA Program Aids Boys In School Only a Half Day

A special YMCA program to keep schoolboys off the street was launched yesterday afternoon.

It was the first in a series of daily activity periods designed to interest boys who go to school only a half day because of crowded classes.

Yesterday's program was initiated by John Watkins, "Y" staff member, in cooperation with W. W. Blauser, principal of West Fifth street school. Because of crowded conditions, West Fifth street school operates on a double shift with some children attending in the morning and others attending in the afternoon.

Thirty-five boys from the school participated in the program which included games, gymnastic activities, tumbling and swimming. The supervised activities lasted from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m.

Morning programs are being planned for boys who attend school in the afternoon. The project was started by the YMCA after concern was felt for the possible increase in juvenile delinquency due to the lack of supervision during the long periods boys are out of school.

All boys are welcome to participate in the programs, whether or not they are YMCA members, "Y" officials said.
